Dear Sir:

While passing thru Tulsa, Okla., last Oct., I was able to locate my cousin Calvin Benton at Sand Springs, Okla. He said he talked with you last summer.

I have additional information on the McCollough family. The father of Moses M. (Morris) was Moses. He moved to Newton Co., about 1840. He lived in Osage Twp., near Osage, Ark. After the death of his first wife he married the motherinlaw of his youngest son Moses M. McCollough. He had a son named Neute Elise Conway McCollogh born Mar 9, 1858. Moses died before Conway was born.

The census record of 1850 lists:" Moses McCollough, a farmer born in N.C., 1794 and Mary H., his wife born in Va. 1796, lived in Indiana and Tenn before coming to Osage Twp. David, born in Ind. 1824 and Morris born in Ind 1833 and Elender born in Tenn 1837 lived with the Moses McCollough family. Footnote indicates two boys age 23 and 19 not living at home. I have been told one boy was named Thomas and one named Aaron.

Also listed in 1850 census of Osage Twp, Stephens McCollough, a farmer and Elizabeth his wife were born in Tenn. 1811 and 1816, respectively. They came to Osage Twp in 1843. The family as recorded in 1850 were James C. 14, Sam 12, Will 10, Avery 7, and Benj. F. 5, all born in Ark.

The father of Moses McCollough (Sr) is undoubtly named David. He was supposed to have fought in the Rev. War. I hopeto have proof of this soon. David or his parents were supposed to have come from Dublin, Ireland. McCollough is a scotch-irish name.

There is a gourd which came from Ireland passed down from the 7th son (or youngest son) to the 7th son. It is now in possession of Cleo McCollough who is the youngest son of John David McCollough. John David was the youngest son of Moses M. McCollough.

I have photographs of the grave stones of my grandfather Salomon C. McCollough and Moses M. McCollough. I do not know whether or not my great-great-grandfather Moses had a grave stone.

I would appreciate knowing if you have any knowledge of a grave stone of Moses McCollough near Osage or know who might be able to assist.

Yours very truly,

/s/ HUGH BENTON

Families: These Were The First

By Jim Lair
Associate Editor

A few preliminary words seem to be in order before we actually begin our look at another historic family. Please remember that if you want to see your individual family in this series you must supply the information for the article. Time simply does not permit this writer the luxury of being able to do the amount of research that is necessary to produce these articles.

Several of our readers have responded to our continuing request for family histories and their kindness is the only reason that we are able to begin this series once again. As before, when this series initially ran in the Tribune, we would ask that these families be limited to people who settled in Carroll County prior to 1850. That arbitrary date is meant in no way to belittle the contributions of the many who came later but in historical accuracy those later arrivals cannot be considered as first families in Carroll County.

So please, if you have a family history of a historic family that meets our requirements either send us a copy of that history, or send the history to us and we will copy it and return it to you. Where possible we would also like to have photographs of the people to accompany the articles.

Now on to another historic family of Carroll County. The information that will serve to introduce this family in this article and that will conclude our view next week was submitted by Christine Hale, and her interest in this series is appreciated by this writer.

Perhaps some historical purists would question the inclusion of some of the members of this family because they actually lived in Newton County, but their inter-family relationships with so many Carroll County families certainly seemed to justify the inclusion by this writer. Then too, it should be rememberd that geographical boundaries are artificial manmade devices and the region in which this family settled was an original part of Carroll County, until Newton County was formed during 1842.

Moses McCollough was the patriarch of the family that will serve as the focal point of re-beginning this series. Born in North Carolina during 1794, a family history that was researched and prepared by Edna Hazel McCullough Lowery and the personal affidavit of Moses McCollough himself strongly suggests that he and/or his family had moved into Green County Tennessee prior to the War of 1812.

In an affidavit that was signed by him, McCollough states that he saw action in the War of 1812, as a private in the company that was commanded by Captain Jacob Hoyle, in the Regiment of the East Tennessee Rifle Footmen "at the horseshoe battle against the Creek Indians." McCollough was drafted into the service at the age of 18 at Campbell — now Knoxville — TN, on or about January 1, 1814, for a term of six months. His actual service time was four months and 20 days.

Shortly after his tenure in the Army, Moses McCollough was united in marriage with Mary Ellen "Polly" Freed on December 9, 1814, at Green County, TN. His new bride was the daughter of John and Regina (Rife) Freed. Her father died in Lawrence County, IN, CA 1826-1827, but her mother made the trip of migration into Arkansas with her daughter and son-in-law. Regina Freed died in Newton County, AR, during 1854.

Family history strongly suggests that the McCollough family moved into Indiana prior to their migration into Arkansas. Some question exists as to the actual county of their residence in Indiana — some information suggests Lawrence County, some suggests Washington County and still other information suggests Greene County.

The seven children that would be born to this historic couple were all born during their Indiana days. The first of these children, Thomas McCollough, was born CA 1817-1818. He was then followed by six siblings: an infant female per the 1820 Census, with no other information being available; David McCollough, born CA 1824; Susanna McCollough, born CA 1826-1828; Sara J. McCollough, born CA 1831; Moses McCollough Jr., born March 2, 1833, and Ellander "Nellie" McCollough, born during 1837.

This family made their historic move into Newton County, AR, around 1847, to settle on land that was located very near the Newton-Carroll County line. "Polly" (Freed) McCollough died in Newton County during 1854.

After the death of his first wife, Moses McCollough married for a second time. His second wife was "Patsy" Martha (Weeks) Allred, the widow of Solomon Allred, and they were married on August 11, 1856, by Justice of the Peace Charles Bunch at Huntsville, in Madison County, AR. This marriage was a part of the beginning of a very complicated family relationship between the McCollough-Allred families, which we will attempt to unravel as we proceed with this family history.

But initially we should mention that Solomon and Martha Allred were the parents of Phoebe Allred who married Moses McCollough Jr., and Solomon Allred was the brother of Jonathan Allred, who married Susanna McCollough, and Aaron Allred, who married Ellender "Nellie" McCollough. It will get more complicated, but more about that later.

Moses and "Patsy" McCollough became the parents of one child, Elish Newton Conway, called "Conway," McCollough, who was born March 9, 1858, in Madison County, AR.

It would be the children of Moses McCollough that would establish the strong Carroll County ties of this historic family by their marriages and the inter-marriages of his grandchildren. All of the children that were born in Indiana made the move to Arkansas with their parents, with the possible exception of the infant girl mentioned in the 1820 Census that no other information is available on.

the age of 94 when she was featured by Edith (Champlin) McCall in "Your Neighbor and Mine." At that time, not unlike so many who have lived in these beautiful hills for so long, this grand lady spoke in loving terms about her family and the pride she had in the individual members. In 1953, that family had grown to include 18 grandchildren, 36 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Also, at age 94, she had outlived her husband and four of her five children. Yet, despite the tragedies she had experienced in her life — the early death of her mother; the death of her second mother; the death of her husband and four children and the loss of her sight in her late years — Edith (Champlin) McCall found her to be "one of the most cheerful people you will ever meet." And as a person who liked "nothing better than to have her neighbors and friends drop in to visit with her."

Rebecca Ann (Summers) Standlee departed this life on March 11, 1955, at the age of 95. She was laid to rest in the Grandview Cemetery of Carroll County, beside her husband. Cemetery records indicate that she also has at least two of her children interred there with her.

Hers was a life that spanned backwards from our more immediate past as a people in this county to that second wave of emmigration that poured into Carroll County to increase the population. Certainly anyone who is conversant with the history of our county is familiar with the family names of both Summers and Standlee. This lady, who lived 83 of her years in Carroll County, is well representative of the best that those two families had to offer and the fact that we are indeed a better people for these families having come our way.

Families: These Were The First

We now turn our attention to the seven children of this couple. Remember please that all of these children were born during the Indiana sojourn of their parents, after Moses and "Polly" McCollough had moved into that state from Tennessee, and they emigrated into the Northwest Arkansas Ozarks with their parents.

Thomas McCollough, who was the first of these seven children, was born CA 1817-1818. He was united in marriage with Vicey "Vicie" Bayes (or perhaps it was spelled Bays), who was a daughter of Josirah and Lettie (or perhaps the spelling is "Lottie") Bayes. Their marriage ceremony was performed in Indiana, CA 1836.

Thomas and "Vicie" McCollough became the parents of ten children. Those children and their spouses were as follows: Alexander McCollough, who married Sarah E.S. Bunch; Esther McCollough, who married William Polk Kirby; David McCollough, who married Permelia Emaline Selba; Mary McCollough, marriage record not available; Rubamey McCollough, who married Charles F. Bunch; William Thomas McCollough, who married Annie Allred; Andrew Jackson McCollough who married Mary Reeves; Milly Adaline McCollough, who married J.S. "Joe" Moore; Margaret Levicy McCollough, who married James Martin Smith and Elizabeth McCollough, who married James Risdom Grigg.

Space will not permit a record of the grandchildren of Thomas and "Vicie" McCollough, but a list of the related family lines that were created will be presented. These interrelated families included: Seitz, Whiteley, Maxwell, Fultz, Nunnally, Miller, Seals, Bell, Davis, Keeland, Allen and Filbeck, to mention a few of the more prominent names in Carroll County history.

David McCollough was actually the third child born into this historic family, but a female who is listed in the 1820 Census of Washington County, IN, disappears without name or additional information. David was united in marriage with Mary J. (maiden name unknown) and they became the parents of at least three children: Sarah W. McCollough, John S. McCollough and Eliza McCollough. The documented family history contains no additional information on this branch of the family.

Susanna McCollough, who was born CA 1827-1828, became the wife of Jonathan Allred, who was a son of John Allred. Eleven children were born to their union. These children, complete with their spouses were: Elizabeth "Betty" Allred, who married Marion Frederick; Solomon Allred, who married Mandy Robertson; Moses Mack Allred, who married Josie Smith; John S. Allred, who married Elizabeth Bartlette; Jonathan Wesley Allred, who married Nancy Villines; Sarah Ellen Allred, who died young and did not marry; Pheby Allred, who also died young and did not marry, and Susann Emily Allred, who married Will Grogan.

No information was presented in the family history of Moses McCollough to indicate related family lines in connection with these children of Susanna (McCollough) and Jonathan Allred.

Sarah J. McCollough, who was born CA 1831, became the wife of Francis M. Snow. Francis M. and Sarah Snow are listed in the 1850 Census of Carroll County. At least four children were born to this couple. Those children were: Mary Snow, John Snow, Sarah Elizabeth Snow and J.A. Snow. According to the family history this information was taken from work on this part of the family line which is not completed yet.

Moses McCollough, Jr., who was born March 2, 1833, was united in marriage with Phoebe Tabitha Catherine Allred, a daughter of Solomon and Martha Allred. Their marriage took place during 1853. Phoebe Allred's mother, Martha, would become the wife of Moses McCollough, Sr., after the death of Solomon Allred. Seven children were born to the union of Moses and Phoebe McCollough. Those children were as follows:

Susan T. McCollough, who died during the Civil War without being married; Thomas McCollough, who also died during the Civil War without being married; Solomon C. McCollough who married Nancy Ellen Brashears; Robert Sherman McCollough, no additional information available; Marion H. McCollough, who married Ida Brashears, a sister of the aforementioned Nancy Ellen Brashears; James Wesley McCollough, the maiden name of his wife is not known, and John David McCollough, who married Margaret Rebecca Allen.

Additional inter-family relationships were created with the historic McCollough family by the marriages of the children of Moses and Phoebe McCollough and by the marriages of their grandchildren. Some of these inter-family lines would include: Tharp, Tibbets, Prentice, O'Neal, Preist, Boyd, Clark, Hutchison, Rice, Dodgen, Rose, Hawkins and Philpot, to mention but a few of the familiar historic family names.

Ellender "Nellie" McCollough was the last child born to Moses and "Polly" McCollough. She was born during March of 1837, and became the wife of Aaron Allred. No research was done into this family by the compiler of the family of Moses McCollough.

Elish Newton Conway McCollough was the eighth child that Moses McCollough sired, but his birth would come after the death of "Polly" McCollough and Moses had married Martha Allred, the widow of Solomon Allred. "Conway" McCollough was born March 9, 1858. He was twice married. His first wife was Martha Dorthery, by whom he had two children who both died. His second wife was Mary Alice Bowling by whom he fathered 12 children.

These children were: Martha Jane McCollough, Frank Newton McCollough, Maggie Lou McCollough, Hattie Mae McCollough, Thomas Edd McCollough, James Albert McCollough, Pleas William McCollough, George Moses McCollough, Nellie Ellen McCollough, John Douglas McCollough, Robert Benjamin McCollough and Roy Leonard McCollough.

Moses McCollough and his wife, Mary Ellen (Freed) McCollough, emigrated into Newton County, AR, in 1847, to cast their lot with an ever growing number of early settlers who were beginning to establish a civilization in the beautiful Ozarkian hills. But for the artificial devises of man as he creates his own geographic boundaries this early historic couple would have settled in Carroll County. The region in which they settled in northern Newton County had been Carroll County land until it was taken in 1842 for the northern most part of Newton County.

Despite the fact they actually were not Carroll County residents historical documents have survived to accurately depict them as being greatly associated with our county. The marriages of their children and their grandchildren created inter-family relationships with a number of the early first families of Carroll County and the Northwest Arkansas Ozarks.

Andrew Jackson "Jack" McCollough was born during December of 1849, in Newton County, AR, a son of Thomas and Vicey "Vicie" (Bayes) McCollough. At his maturity he was united in marriage with Mary Reeves, who had been born during August of 1851, in Tennessee. They were married during 1871.

Five children were born to the union of Andrew Jackson "Jack" and Mary (Reeves) McCollough. These children were as follows: Josie; Julia; James; Andrew; and William Thomas.

Josie McCollough, their elder child, was born during 1872, in Marble Township of Madison County, AR. She was united in marriage with Jess Maxwell and one child, Hester Maxwell, was born to their union. Hester Maxwell married Cliff Sugg and one child was born to their union, Henry Sugg, of Berryville.

Julia Ann McCollough, the second daughter of "Jack" McCollough, was born June 29, 1874. She was united in marriage with Jonathan Brice Douglas and seven children were born to their union. These children were as follows: Thomas Herman Douglas, who married twice — Pearl Fultz and then Zella Clark; Garlan Douglas, also married twice — Mattie Griffith and then Ruth Breeding — and sired one child, Laveta Phillips; Jesse Raymond Douglas, married Arvilla Wise; Roman Douglas, married Aileen Thorne and sired two children Anna Lee and Mary Helen; Grace Douglas, married Herbert Fultz and had three children, Orr, Leota and Bonnie; Mary Douglas, married twice — Fay Jackson and then Ray Clark — and had three sons, Bobbie, Billy and Gary Jackson; John C. Douglas, married Thelma Ruth Morris, and had five children, Christine Hale, Lorene Wheatley, Homer Brice Douglas, Charlette Peterson and Brenda Gabbard.

James "Jim" McCollough, the third child of "Jack" McCollough, was born during 1876, in Madison County, AR. He was united in marriage with Rosie Nunnally and two children, Vinie Usrey, of Harrison, AR, and Lillie Allred, of Osage, were born to their union.

William Thomas McCollough, the fourth child of "Jack" McCollough, was born during November of 1891. He was united in marriage with Lela Johnson. Two children were born to their union: Glen W. McCollough, who married Hazel B. Griggs in 1935, sired on son Kenneth Frank Griggs; and Claude C. McCollough, who married Fern Sugg, and sired two sons, Jack and John McCollough.

Andrew B. McCollough, was the fifth child of "Jack" McCollough, but in order of birth he was actually fourth. He was saved for last because the information about him is most sketchy. He was born during January of 1883, and was united in marriage with Cora(?). One son, Omer McCollough, was born to him. Andrew B. McCollough evidently died at a rather young age because he was already deceased when his mother made her will in October of 1916.

A grandson of Andrew Jackson "Jack" McCollough, Claude McCollough, was credited with the following words in connection with his grandfather: "I know my grandfather was not able to read and write, because I was looking through some abstracts concerning the old McCollough farm, and noticed that his wife had signed his name beside his 'X'. This is somewhat hard to understand because an older brother of his was a preacher after he got out of the Civil War and also apparently taught school."

"Hard to Understand," well not really for you see these first families were not educated people as we would classify the educated today. Book learning was often hard to come by in the days that these individuals were engaged in building a civilization that we still enjoy today. But please don't misunderstand, just because so many of these early settlers could not read or write that in itself did not mean that they were ignorant people.

They understood and practiced the true lasting values of life. They knew how to survive, how to scratch an existence out of soil that was not really conducive to farming. They met their own needs and the needs of their families. They shaped a civilization out of what had been a virtual wilderness when they arrived. But perhaps most important of all, they left us a legacy in their children and grandchildren as they continued the efforts of the forebearers to create a county and a people that is totally unique in the history of man.

We of the present owe much to these the first families of Carroll County. This land of ours, so rich in beauty and heritage, that we love so is what it is in large measure because of their initial efforts. When you measure their accomplishments against the fact that they could not read and write the importance of those abilities pales considerably.

Mississippi, he served in the schools of Carroll County, Arkansas. "Worth makes the man, and want of it the fellow." The people of Carroll County chose the man — not the fellow. Marcus McCall never let them down.

In Eureka Springs, Mr. McCall taught for forty-three years, and although he was re-elected by the school board for his forty-fourth term, he chose to retire at that time, for he felt that after fifty years in the classroom, he would enjoy devoting full time to his farm. With a twinkle in his eye, he confided to a close friend that he much preferred leaving while they still wanted him. Marcus McCall had never been turned down by any school board for any position for which he had ever applied.

The most singular record he held was that in all his fifty years of teaching he missed only one and one-half days due to illness. I have been told that his "illness" was due to his running a briar so deep into his hand it was necessary for him to go to a doctor to have it removed. No doubt the doctor had to use a little force to keep his patient at home.

Marcus McCall was a man of great stamina — physically, mentally, morally. His unusual good health he attributed to the food he ate. He believed that with a well-balanced diet one does not need vitamin pills — a view shared by most medical doctors. He gave further credit for his good health to the vigorous exercise he got from cultivating his garden. And for warding off mental stress and strain, he simply drove out to his farm on the Huntsville highway and enjoyed nature. He found that out it the fields "ill thoughts die and good are born."

Marcus Lee McCall, the eldest child of George Robert and Margaret (Scroggins) McCall, was born February 10, 1870, in the Walker School District, on Kings River east of Eureka Springs. He was reared in the Walker community, and at the age of nineteen, he took his first teaching position in that district. Among the students he taught in his first school was Bertie L. Rude, whom he married August 8, 1891.

After teaching school in the Walker School for several terms, he taught at Shady Grove and Grandview. The school board at Grandview delayed opening school, awaiting the end of Marcus' term at Shady Grove. Early in his teaching career, he served for one year as the principal of the Green Forest High School.

Marcus McCall began his forty-three years of teaching in Eureka Springs Schools circa 1896-97, for he stated in 1927, when Superintendent C.S. Barnett retired, that he had been with Mr. Barnett for thirty of the thirty-eight years of the latter's superintendency.

The thirty-year relationship of Superintendent C.S. Barnett and Principal M.L. McCall was a close one and one of significance in the development of the Eureka Springs School System. Each man complemented the other — Mr. Barnett, the idealist, the man of letters, the executive; Mr. McCall, the realist, the scientist, the disciplinarian. Both men were of fine character, determination, energy, and perseverance. Mr. McCall's excellent organization of the Science Department was a vital factor in Mr. Barnett's obtaining in 1926 the "A" class rating of the Eureka Springs High School, given by the North Central Teachers Association.

Following Mr. Barnett's resignation as superintendent, the school board chose Marcus McCall for the position. Mr. McCall served as superintendent during the 1927-28 school year, but he was unwilling to accept the position for the next term. "All of my preparation has been for teaching, and I would not have it again," he said. He returned to his old position of principal of the high school and head of the Science Department.

Mr. R.L. Smith became superintendent of the Eureka Springs Schools at the beginning of the 1928-29 school year, and Marcus McCall gave to him the same loyalty and fine service that he had given to Mr. Barnett. There was excellent communication between the superintendent and principal, and the schools continued to progress.

Marcus McCall was a chemistry major. He received his education at the Universities of Arkansas, Missouri, and Chicago. Many of his summer months he spent attending classes at these universities, and he earned additional credits through their correspondence courses. He had a burning desire to learn more and more in the field of science. He once said to me, "Kiddo, the thing I hate most about leaving this earth someday is that many discoveries and inventions are yet to be made, and I will not be here to know about them."

...Marcus McCall was ingenuous in teaching, guiding, influencing, and inspiring his students. There was a special charm about the man, whose voice had the ringing note of sincerity, as he set forth simply and convincingly his honest thinking. There was no "window dressing" in his remarks, and they were not strained by far-fetched words and meanings. He devised clear and uninvolved sentences, avoided big words, and was concise and pointedly brief. Sometimes he resorted to homilies, if he felt they served his purpose, but he never was digressive. He was familiar with his subject, gave a clear analysis of the issue, and used a clean-cut logic of reasoning. He taught on the level of his students, and his teaching has stood the test of years.

Perhaps it was because Marcus McCall grew up on a farm and later had a farm of his own that some people thought his favorite subject was biology. Actually, Marcus McCall, as did his brother, Finis, hated farm work — they liked to read books. both young men seized every educational opportunity they could to get away from the farm and become school teachers. But, as the old saying goes, "You can take the boy off the farm, but you can't take the farm out of the boy." Regardless of their many happy years in the classroom, the land remained an integral part of their lives...

Mc Collough, Moses And Mary Ellin (Freed)

The destiny of some men is the forsaking of all that has been known before to reach out and grasp the unknown. Moses McCollough was one such man. Little did Thomas and Mary McCollough realize that the son they sired in North Carolina in 1794 would in his maturity become the patriarch of several of their descendants who would carve a life for themselves in the Northwest Arkansas Ozark Geographical Region.

DAVID MCCOLLOUGH AND HIS SONS

However, men are often shaped by the historical events that happen around them. Moses McCollough joined with his peers to adopt a life of mobility as he constantly sought an every better life for himself and his family.

He was drafted into military service January 1, 1814, during the War of 1812, and he saw action against the Creek Indians in the Battle of Horseshoe. Moses McCollough was discharged May 20, 1814.

Seven months after his discharge he was united in marriage with Mary Ellin "Polly" Freed on December 9, 1814, in

ANDREW JACKSON AND PHEOBE (MITCHELL) MCCOLLOUGH, AND THEIR CHILDREN, CLOCKWISE, DAVE, EDGAR, BESSIE, AUDIE, AND VERDIE. THIS IS THE SON AND GRANDCHILDREN OF DAVID MCCOLLOUGH

Green County, Tennessee. "Polly" was a native of Virginia, having been born there during 1796, as a daughter of John and Regina (Rife) Freed. After their marriage the couple moved to Washington County, Indiana — or so some family researchers believe but the fact has not been documented.

Eight children would be born to the union of Moses and "Polly" McCollough, and those children were as follows:

Thomas McCollough, who was born circa 1817-1818, in Indiana, and was united in marriage with Luvicey Bayes, and died circa 1859, in Carroll County, Arkansas; no information is available on their second child; David McCollough, was born circa 1824, and was united in marriage with Mary J. ?; Susanna McCollough, who was born circa 1826-1828, was united in marriage with Jonathan Wesley Allred, and died during 1892; Sarah J. McCollough, who was born circa 1831, and was united in marriage with Francis M. Snow; Moses McCollough, Jr., who was born March 2, 1833, was united in marriage with Phoebe T.C.M. Allred, and died after 1907; Ellender "Nellie" McCollough, who was born during March of 1836, and was united in marriage with Aaron Allred; and Elish Newton Conway McCollough — a son by a second marriage — who was born March 9, 1858, was united in marriage with Mary Alice Bowling, and died February 15, 1915.

Mary Ellin "Polly" (Freed) McCollough died circa 1854. On August 11, 1856, Moses McCollough was united in marriage with Martha "Patsy" (Weeks) Allred. One son, Elish Newton Conway McCollough, was born to that union.

The McCollough family moved into Northwest Arkansas around 1847.

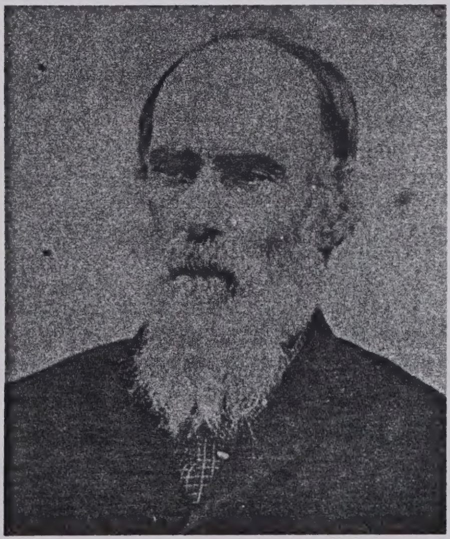
Moses McCollough departed this life February 28, 1859, and he was buried in Kingston, Arkansas. Submitted by Jean Smith.

MC COLLOUGH, THOMAS AND LUVICEY (BOYLES)

Thomas McCollough was born circa 1817-1818, in the State of Indiana — some think in Washington County — as a son of Moses and Mary Ellin "Polly" (Freed) McCollough. We know nothing of his childhood, however he was the family patriarch of several of the historic families of Carroll County, Arkansas.

A MCCOLLOUGH FAMILY GROUP
Pictured are Andrew Jackson McCollough — with the beard, Julia Ann (McCollough) Douglas — standing, Jonathan Brice Douglas, and the child is John C. Douglas.

He was united in marriage with Luvicey "Vicie" Bayes (Baize) Boyles circa 1836. His wife, who was part Cherokee, was born circa 1820 as a daughter of Josiah and Lillie (Lettie) Boyles. Ten children were born to their union, and those children were as follows:



ALEXANDER MCCOLLOUGH

Alexander McCollough, who was born March 3, 1837, in Indiana, was united in marriage with Sarah E.S. Bunch, and died February 25, 1921; Esther McCollough, who was born ca 1838, and was married to William Polk Kirby; David McCollough, who was born circa 1841, and was united in marriage with Permelia Emaline Selby; Mary "Polly" McCollough, who was born circa 1843, was united in marriage with John Allred, and died circa 1860; Reuhamey McCollough, who was born during 1846, was married to Charles Franklin Bunch, and died during 1919; William Thomas McCollough, who was born January 22, 1848, in Osage Township of Newton County, Arkansas, was united in marriage with Anna B. Allred, and died during 1925; Andrew Jackson "Jack" McCollough, who was born during December of 1849, and was united in marriage with Mary S. Reeves; Milly Adaline McCollough, who was born circa 1851, and was united in marriage with J.S. "Joe" Moore; Margaret Luvica McCollough, who was born December 25, 1852, was united in marriage with James Martin Smith, and died May 30, 1922; and Sarah Elizabeth "Lizzie," or "Lettie" McCollough, who was born February 24, 1856, was united in marriage with Jasper Risdom Grigg, and died October 28, 1885.

This family lived near Dry Fork, Arkansas.

Luvicey (Boyles) McCollough departed this life circa 1856 to 1857, and Thomas McCollough died circa 1859. Submitted by Jean Smith.

MC DONALD, JAMES AND SOPHIA ELIZABETH (WOOLEY)

James McDonald was born April 14, 1843, in Jefferson County, Missouri. We know almost nothing of his parentage or childhood, yet like so many of his era he grew to maturity to wrest a living for himself and his family from the soil as a farmer. He also knew mobility during his lifetime as he moved several times to live in the State of Missouri, in Carroll County, Arkansas, and also in the State of Kansas.

At the age of twenty-four he was united in marriage with Sophia Elizabeth Wooley. Sophia had been born November 15, 1848, in Stone County, Missouri, as a daughter of Carroll C. and Nancy Jane (House) Wooley.

Twelve children were born to the marital union of James and Sophia Elizabeth (Wooley) McDonald, and those children were as follows:

Willie McDonald, who was born April 6, 1868, in Lawrence County, Missouri, and died August 9, 1868, and is buried in the Zion Cemetery in Mount Vernon, Missouri.

Alexander McCullough, who was born March 7, 1837, in Indiana, was united in marriage with Sarah E.S. Busch, and died February 23, 1921; Esther McCullough, who was born in 1838, and was married to William Polk Kirby; David McCullough, who was born circa 1841, and was united in marriage with Permelia Emaline Selby; Mary "Polly" McCullough, who was born circa 1843, was united in marriage with John Allred, and died circa 1860; Senhaney McCullough, who was born during 1846, was married to Charles Franklin Beach, and died during 1919; William Thomas McCullough, who was born January 23, 1848, in Osage Township of Newton County, Arkansas, was united in marriage with Anna B. Allred, and died during 1925; Andrew Jackson "Jack" McCullough, who was born during December of 1849, and was united in marriage with Mary S. Reeves; Milly Adaline McCullough, who was born circa 1851, and was united in marriage with J.S. "Joe" Moore; Margaret Lavicia McCullough, who was born December 23, 1852, was united in marriage with James Martin Smith, and died May 30, 1923; and Sarah Elizabeth "Lizzie," or "Lettie" McCullough, who was born February 24, 1856, was united in marriage with James Gaston Gregg, and died October 28, 1883.

This family lived near Dry Fork, Arkansas.

Lavicey (Boyles) McCullough departed this life circa 1856 to 1857, and Thomas McCullough died circa 1859. Submitted by Jean Smith.

At the age of twenty-four he was united in marriage with Sophia Elizabeth Wooley. Sophia had been born November 15, 1848, in Stone County, Missouri, as a daughter of Carroll C. and Nancy Jane (Honey) Wooley.

Twelve children were born to the marital union of James and Sophia Elizabeth (Wooley) McDonald, and those children were as follows:

Willis McDonald, who was born April 8, 1868, in Lawrence County, Missouri, and died August 9, 1868, and is buried in the Zion Cemetery in Mount Vernon, Missouri.

Moses McCullough departed this life February 18, 1857, and he was buried in Kingston, Arkansas. Submitted by Jean Smith.

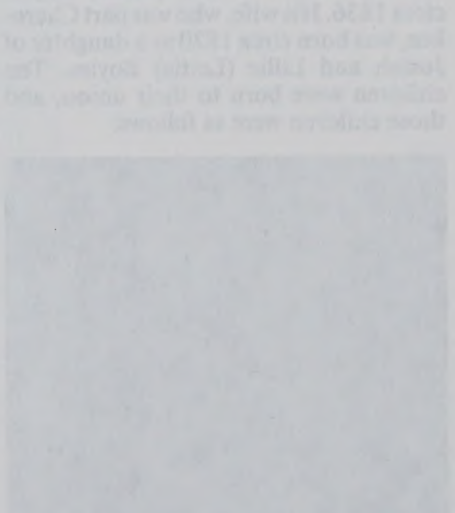
McCullough, Thomas And Lavicey (Boyles)

Thomas McCullough was born circa 1817-1818, in the State of Indiana — some think in Washington County — as a son of Moses and Mary Eline "Polly" (Freed) McCullough. We know nothing of his childhood, however he was the family patriarch of several of the historic families of Carroll County, Arkansas.

A McCULLOUGH FAMILY GROUP

Pictured are Andrew Jackson McCullough — with the beard, with Ann McCullough Douglas — grandson, Jeremiah Ross Douglas, and the child is John C. Douglas.

He was united in marriage with Lavicey "Vicey" Bayes (Baize) Boyles circa 1836. His wife, who was part Cherokee, was born circa 1820 as a daughter of Jonah and Lillie (Lesley) Boyles. Ten children were born to their union, and those children were as follows:



ALEXANDER McCULLOUGH

ANDREW JACKSON AND PHOEBE (MITCHELL) McCULLOUGH, AND THEIR CHILDREN, CARCHIE, DAVE, EDGAR, BESSIE, ALICE, AND VIRGIL. THIS IS THE SON AND GRANDCHILDREN OF DAVID McCULLOUGH.

Green County, Tennessee. "Polly" was a native of Virginia, having been born there during 1798, as a daughter of John and Regina (Rife) Freed. After their marriage the couple moved to Washington County, Indiana — or so some family researchers believe but the fact has not been documented.

Eight children would be born to the union of Moses and "Polly" McCullough, and those children were as follows:

Thomas McCullough, who was born circa 1817-1818, in Indiana, and was united in marriage with Lavicey Bayes, and died circa 1859, in Carroll County, Arkansas; no information is available on their second child; David McCullough, who was born circa 1824, and was united in marriage with Mary J. ?; Susanna McCullough, who was born circa 1826-1828, was united in marriage with Jonathan Wesley Allred, and died during 1892; Sarah J. McCullough, who was born circa 1831, and was united in marriage with Francis M. Stone; Moses McCullough, Jr., who was born March 2, 1833, was united in marriage with Phoebe T.C.M. Allred, and died after 1907; Ellender "Nellie" McCullough, who was born during March of 1836, and was united in marriage with Aaron Allred; and Elish Newton Conway McCullough — a son by a second marriage — who was born March 9, 1838, was united in marriage with Mary Alice Bonham, and died February 13, 1915.

Mary Elin "Polly" (Freed) McCullough died circa 1834. On August 11, 1836, Moses McCullough was united in marriage with Martha "Patsy" (Woods) Allred. One son, Elish Newton Conway McCullough, was born to that union.

The McCullough family moved into Northwest Arkansas around 1847.

ied in 1858, and was about 39 years old when she died. My mother moved from Va. to Ind. and had been living in Ind. about three years when I was born. My mother and folks lived all around in Old Va., New Va. and N. C. and S. C. My grandfather and my mother slipped out just before the Indians were driven out. Out of Va. They did not want to go with the Indians is the reason they went out. My grandfather did not live with the tribe, as I know of. My mother was principally raised in Ind. When I said my mother had been in Ind. about three years when I was born, I made a mistake. She had been living there longer than that. My grandmother and grandfather went to Ind. with my mother and lived there. I think a right smart while. My grandmother's maiden name was Lettie Mays. Lettie Mays was born, I think, in Va., near Richmond. After she was married she lived most in Ind. Before she was married in Va., I think. She lived most of her life in Ind. She lived to be 102 years old. In 1835 she was living in Ind. I don't know where her brothers lived. I don't know where Samuel Mays, her brother lived. I have heard of two brothers she had. Jim and Samuel. I don't know whether Samuel Mays moved out with the Indians or not. I don't know anything about him, whether he had any children or anything about him. Most of my relations live in Ind. I could not say whether my grandmother was a recognized member of the Cherokee tribe. I don't know whether she lived with the Indians or white people. I think at the time they left for Ind. they were living in Va. That is my understanding. We gave a man $100 to get our rights in I. T. but the man did not do anything about it." I got the following from a website that is no longer available:

Josiah Bays (John Bays, Jr., John Bays) was born February 22, 1783 in Pittsylvania, VA and died May 23, 1842 in Greene, IN. He married Lettice Mayes, February 15, 1808 in Pittsylvania, VA, daughter of Christian Mayes and Elizabeth Ragon.

Children of Josiah Bays and Lettice Mayes are:

Amelia Bays, born 1811 in Pittsylvania, VA died August 1849 in Greene, IN. She married Amos Watson January 17, 1828 in Surry, NC. (no information on his parents)

Chloe Bays, born abt. 1813 in Pittsylvania, VA, died aft 1850 in Greene, IN. She married John B. Olinger September 29, 1831 in Wythe, VA. son of Jacob Olinger and Barbara Tawney.

Walter Cole Bays, born abt. 1814 in Pittsylvania, VA, died 1840-1842 in Greene, IN. He married Ester Workman May 24, 1835 in Greene, IN. (no information on her parents)

Joshua Bays, Sr. born May 25, 1815 in Pittsylvania, VA, died October 16, 1849 in Greene, IN. He married Emily Burch May 12, 1836 in Greene, IN, daughter of Joseph Burch and Malinda Collins.

Joseph Mayes Bays, born April 21, 1817 in Surry NC, died August 10, 1849 in Greene, IN. He married Carrie Burch December 22, 1836 in Greene, IN, daughter of Joseph Burch and Malinda Collins.

Elizabeth Bays, born October 15, 1818 in Pittsylvania, VA died 1893 in Greene, IN. She married Josiah C. Bays, October 15, 1835 in Greene, IN son of Joshua Bays and Ruth Saunders.

Alfred Bays. born abt 1820 in Surry, NC, died June 26, 1844. He married Elizabeth Shields January 27, 1842 in Greene, IN, daughter of Josiah Shields and Martha Bingham.

Polly Ann Bays, born July 29, 1823 in Surry, NC, died September 11, 1857 in Greene, IN. She married John Uland January 28, 1841 in Greene, IN, son of Jonas Uland and Elizabeth Bingham.

Levicy Bays, born abt. 1819 in Pittsylvania, VA died 1858 in Osage Township, Newton, Arkansas. She married Thomas McCollough April 2, 1836 in Greene, IN son of Moses McCollough and Mary Freed.

Andrew Jackson Bays, born 1825 in VA, died October 1850 in Greene, IN. He married Elizabeth Ann Hutchins, February 11, 1845 in Greene, IN. (Her parents aren't listed)

James Bays, born May 222, 1827 in VA, died October 26, 1855 in IN. He married Rachel K. Bays, daughter of William Bays and Lucy Bingham.

I would take this information as a guide for further research. If I remember correctly, the website was a compilation of data from many researchers.

I'm descended from John Bays III who went to KY. I happened to get the information on the Bays from Greene, IN when I printed out the information on my KY ancestors. Good luck with your research.

The book, Cherokee by Blood: Records of Eastern Cherokee Ancestry in the U.S. Court of Claims, 1906-1910, Volume 2, pages 240-241 (and various pages in other volumes) will show the application information concerning about 36 members of the family of "Lettie" Mays. The primary deposition was made by Alexander McCollough who lived in Dinsmore, Arkansas. He states that his grandmother was Lettie Mays. Others applying under her name lived in Indiana, Arkansas, Kansas, Nebraska and elsewhere. All Cherokee claims were rejected. Alexander McCollough was the son of Thomas McCollough and Luvicy Bayes and my husband's great-grandfather.

Phoebe T.C.W. Allred - TN/MO (1837-1901)

Posted by: Donna Galloway Date: September 28, 1999 at 11:23:02

Phoebe (or Pheba) Tabitha Catherine Whinery Allred was born in Tennessee 6 March 1837 and died in Blue Eye, MO on 14 February 1901. She was married to Moses McCollough, who ran the ferry near Branson, MO. I'm interested in her ancestors and siblings, as well as the children from this marriage. I know one child was Rev. Solomon McCollough. Any information deeply appreciated.

VICEY BAYS McCOLLOUGH

Luvicy Bays, daughter of Josiah Bays I and Letty Mayes, was born about 1819 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia and died about 1858 in Osage Township, Newton County, Arkansas. Her parents moved first to Surry County, North Carolina, then back to Virginia and finally to Greene County, Indiana in the mid eighteen-thirties. She married Thomas McCollough on 2 April 1836. He was born about 1817 and died about 1859 in Newton County, Arkansas one year after Luvicy . He was son of Moses McCollough and Mary Ellen Freed. Moses McCollough had been in the War of 1812 and received bounty land in Newton and Madison Counties of Arkansas. Thomas McCollough and wife, 'Vicey', had made an original land entry of 40 acres described as the NE 1/4 SE 1/4 Sec. 12 Beech Creek Township, Greene County Indiana, but when the McColoughes decided to move to Arkansas in 1847 the Thomas McCollough Family decided to go too. Thomas McCollough is not listed in the 1850 census of Newton County, but the family is listed as No. 266 in Osage Township as that of James M. Kirby. Thomas might have gone to the California Gold Rush in 1849 according to Jean Illick of Modesto, California. Thomas and Luvicy had five children in Greene County, Indiana and five more in Osage Township, Newton County, Arkansas. The three older sons served with the Confederate Army and husbands of the two older daughters served. John Allred, husband of Mary, was killed 25 September 1864 at Pilot Knob, Missouri. Son, David McCollough, was a Sergeant in the Confederate Army.

Lucy Ellen Garrison Smith, a descendant of Luvicy, who has provided much of the family data, says that Luvicy Bays McCollough would go down to the White River and take the bark off a Linden tree to make a canoe to cross the river. This indicates the Indian ancestory of Luvicy's mother, Letty Mayes. It has been said that the Luvicy (Levisa) name comes from the Duchess of Cumberland and an early name for the Kentucky River. The name was then passed down from the wife of John Bays II.

Lettice "Letty" or "Lettie" Mayes was born approximately 1784 in Halifax County, VA. She married Joseph Bays, Sr., on 15 Feb 1808 in either Patrick County or Pittsylvania County, VA. Letty was believed to be Cherokee. A photograph of her appears on page 7 of Charles Carter's (my uncle) "Joseph Bays I Letty Mayes Tree" book. Letty/Lettie is believed to be buried in the Bays/Glover Cemetery, Beech Creek Twp, Greene Co, IN. I am directly descended from Letty/Lettie through her daughter, Polly Ann Bays, who married John Uland (s/o Jonas Uland and Elizabeth Bingham) on 28 Jan 1841. Polly Ann Bayes's and John Uland's daughter, Eliza Jane Uland, was born 28 Mar 1852 in Greene Co., IN, and is my great-grandmother. Eliza Jane m. James Washington Carter on 12 November 1868 in Greene Co., IN. Both Eliza Jane and James Washington are buried in Nebraska.

I have more information on Lettice/Letty/Lettie Mayes, if you are interested.

Subject: Re: Levicey Bayes family

I am a gg grandaughter of Levicey Bayes. I am trying to find any info on her and the family. Also any pictures of her and the family. I am from her son Andrew jackson McCollough . His daughter Julia was my grandmother. She married Jonathan Brice Douglass and their youngest son was my father. If anyone has any pictures of Levicey and Thomas I would love to have a copy. would also like a picture of Josiah and Lettie. Someone had a picture of Lettie and offered to scan it.

Hi, Paula

Lettice "Letty" Mayes (also spelled Mays) Bays is well documented by Charles Carter, Jr., in his book "Branches in the Tree of Josiah Bays I and Lettice Mayes." Page 7 has a photograph that purports to be of Letty, who was said to have Cherokee ancestry (you can look at the photograph and decide for yourself what you think). I am descended through her daughter, Polly Ann Bays, who married John Uland on 28 Jan 1841 in Greene Co, IN. Best Regards, Joseph Carter.

Subject: Re: Levicey Bayes family

Hi Christine,
I do not have a picture of Levicey and Thomas McCollough. Also, none of the others you mentioned. We have always wanted to obtain a picture of Alexander and sure Dick's grandmother, Melcenia "Sennie" McCollough Nunneley probably had one, but was not into genealogy while she was living...too bad. Most of her pictures went to her son and when he died his son threw them away...
The Susannah McCollough Allred (1827-1892) buried at Hopewell Cemetery is not a daughter of Levicey and Thomas. She was the daughter of Moses and Mary Ellen "Polly" Freed McCollough. Thomas and Levicey did not marry until 2 Apr 1836 in Greene Co. Indiana. Susannah McCollough Allred was born in 1827.

Children of Thomas and Levicy Bayes McCollough:

Alexander McCollough m Sarah Elizabeth Susan Bunch
born / 5 Mar 1837 / Greene Co. IN died / 25 Feb 1921 / buried Liberty Cemetery / Newton Co. AR / on Findagrave

Esther McCollough m William Polk Kirby born / 25 Sep 1838 / Greene Co. IN died / 1909 / buried Baptist Mission Cemetery / Adair Co. OK / on Findagrave

David McCollough m Permelia Emaline Selby born / 2 May 1842 / Greene Co. IN died / 16 Apr 1911 / buried Liberty Cemetery / Newton Co. AR / on Findagrave

Mary "Polly" McCollough m John Allred born / 16 Jan 1844 / Greene Co. IN died / 1864 / buried Pilot Knob Cemetery / Iron Co. MO
NOTE....I rather doubt this location of burial that is entered on Findagrave. John Allred was killed during the Civil War at Pilot Knob MO and was supposed to have been buried on the battlefield, but someone has entered their location of burial and info on Findagrave.

William Thomas McCollough m Anna B. Allred
born / 22 Jan 1848 / Osage, Newton Co. AR died / 9 Jan 1925 / buried Liberty Cemetery / Newton Co. AR / on Findagrave

Andrew Jackson "Jack" McCollough m Mary S. Reeves
born / 14 Dec 1849 / Arkansas
died / 6 Oct 1916 / buried Liberty Cemetery / Newton Co. AR / on Findagrave

Milly Adeline McCollough m Joseph S. Moore
born / Dec 1851 / Arkansas
died / 1923 / buried Liberty Cemetery / Newton Co. AR / on Findagrave

Margaret Luvicy McCollough m James Martin Smith
born / 25 Dec 1852 / Osage, Newton Co. AR died / 30 May 1922 / buried Bunch Cemetery / Polo, Carroll Co. AR on Findagrave

Sarah Elizabeth McCollough m Jasper Risdom Grigg
born / 24 Feb l1856 / Newton Co. AR died / 28 Oct 1885 / buried Kingston Cemetery / Madison Co. AR / on Findagrave

I suspect that Thomas may have gone to the gold fields. Many in that area of Arkansas have the same story. My husband's gg-grandfather, Joseph Alexander Nunneley married the second time in 1851, but he is NOT on the 1860 census. His wife is with their two sons and her daughter by a previous marriage. In the household is her daughter's baby boy, age one BORN CALIFORNIA. The only problem is....I have a court records where Joseph Nunneley personally appears before the court selling his land in 1864...did he really appear or did Clarissa Moore Maxwell Nunneley, his wife, sell his land ??

More later,
Mary R M Nunneley

Hi Mary,
So sorry to hear about your daughters cancer. I lost a brother on Dec 22nd and a sister on Jan 12 this year to Pancreatic Cancer. It was bad. So I hope your daughter does well.

I will see if I can find the book you listed. I don't have much on Levicey and her mother and father. Do you happen to have a picture of levicey and Thomas. I did not find them on census but I was talking to a g grandson and he thinks that Thomas went to Calif. to the gold fields after Levicey died and that he died there. He said that is what his grandfather told him. I haven't found a grave for Levicey but I have come to the conclusion that I think she is buried at Hopewell with her daughter Susannah Allred. I have been to that cemetery but there isn't a stone for her but there are lots of stones that have been broken or buried in the dirt. The book I have on the McColloughs said that Levicey died in Osage township, Newton Co . I have been to all the little cemeteries in between Osage and Liberty and didn't find her in any of them. Someone told me that Thomas was buried in Liberty but I didn't find any stone for him. then the grandson told me he had died in the gold fields.

My dad use to tell me of going to stay with his grandparents , Andrew Jackson and Mary Reeves Mccollough. He said his grandmother would go to the spring for water and that she would carry a bucket in each hand and put one on her head. She was half Indian also. So I get the Indian blood from the Reeves side and the McCollough side thru Lettice Mayes and Levicey. He also said she was the meanest old woman he had ever known. The grandson also told me she was on drugs. It seems alot of the old women got on drugs back then after childbirth.

Andrew Jackson and Mary Reeves had Josie, Julia Ann(my grandmother), James, Bee, and William. William took care of his mother after his dad died and he got the farm when she died. I have a copy of her will.

Do you have any pictures of the McCollough children? I have a picture of Alexander, David, Margaret and Andrew Jackson.

Hope to hear from you soon

I am a gg grandaughter of Levicey Bayes. I am trying to find any info on her and the family. Also any pictures of her and the family. I am from her son Andrew jackson McCollough . His daughter Julia was my grandmother. She married Jonathan Brice Douglass and their youngest son was my father. If anyone has any pictures of Levicey and Thomas I would love to have a copy. would also like a picture of Josiah and Lettie. Someone had a picture of Lettie and offered to scan it.

It is out of print and no libraries that own copies will loan. But, just found it online by the LDS Family History Center. I used Google and entered the title. It will pull up several listings for the Carter book, but look for the one that indicates FamilyHistoryCenter.

My husband, Richard Nunneley, descends from Alexander McCollough who married Sarah Elizabeth Susan Bunch. Alex is a brother to your Andrew Jackson "Jack" McCollough who married Mary Reeves. My husband's line is:

Thomas McCollough m Luvicy Bayes
Alexander McCollough m Sarah E. S. Bunch
Melcenia Jane "Sennie" McCollough m Elbert Alexander Nunneley
Virgil Windfield Nunneley m Ola Grace Henderson
Richard Dean Nunneley

Have you ever found Thomas and Luvicy on the 1850 census in Arkansas. I have searched for years with no luck. Two of their children, William T. and Margaret are living with Anna Allred in Carroll Co. in 1860 and listed as orphans. Thomas and Luvicy are supposed to have died in Arkansas before 1860, but have found no location of burial for either of them.

Mary do you know where Clay Mccollough, son of Rosey and Jimmy McCollough is buried. It said he died in Ponca City Ok and she died in Okla City Ok. I looked to see if they were in Liberty Cemetery but they didn't show up onFind A grave. I think I have found all the children of Uncle Jimmy and Rosey but Clay. Cleo McCollough Moore is buried in Hogan cem in Locust Grove, Ok, William Bryan is in Rest Haven Gardens in Ok City, Andrew Jackson McCollough is in Fairview Cem. in Pryor, Ok and Jessie Bert is in Memory Garden Memorial Park in Medford Oregon. Oma is already attached to her parents memorial and also Vennie and Lillie are attached. The only one I can't find is Clay. I didn't realize they had so many children until I went to the census. I checked the census from 1910 thru 1930. When Uncle Jimmy came back to Arkansas to visit he always stayed with us. I can remember that he would never eat supper as he said he couldn't sleep if he ate at night. I really enjoyed it when he came to visit as he always had tales to tell. Uncle Willie, his brother, lived around Kingston and he would come over and they would have a great time. Only uncle willie was never still long enough to really visit with him. He was always on the go. They were my grandmothers brothers. If only I had known then to write down things that they talked about. But back then I never thought of it.

15 March, 1980

1550 S. Dewey
Bartlesville, Oklahoma 74003

Dear Mary:

I received your packet yesterday - certainly hope that I did not mislead you that I am compiling on the whole branch of McCollough. Please note the David that married Emaline Selby - the descendants of this branch, as of now is all of the McCollough's that are connected in to my compiling. (This Emaline Selby was a sister to my Great Grandfather William Joshua Selby. Now, lets go a step further - as far back as I have on the Selby/Bunch side of the Family.

The parents of the above children (and there were more) were Nathaniel Selby and Obedience Bunch (Born 12 March, 1820) and the daughter of Nathaniel Bunch and Sarah Wade Ray. So, we connect on the Bunch side of the Family and not the McCollough. Of course, there are several families that are intermarried with the same surname that it is possible that we can help each other further in our compiling.

I have only gotten information on my Selby/Bunch in the past three months so really have not got very much done toward them. I do write letters continually - but I am working on other lines - The Selby and Hazelbaker lines have been the main two that I have worked on recently.

I am working on the David McCollough/Mary Emaline Polly Selby line now, trying to contact all descendants up to the current generation and will be happy to pass this information along to you, when it is compiled. I could give you the name of my first McCollough contacted and you can work from there, as my procedure is just to try and contact one at a time. On the others, I have just towns where they live, and I am hoping the first one that I write to can give me the mailing addresses of the others. Does that make sense.

Mary, if you have the information from Mrs. Geneva King at Nowata, you have the information that I have on the Bunch Family. It is not a book and has not been published. I have wanted to contact this Mrs. King (if she is still with us) to get more definite information. Mrs. Nettie Pitcock, 1155 Palamos Ave. Sunnyvale, Ca. 94086 is where I got the Bunch information. I just wrote to her this last week, wanting to know how this pedigree on the bunches is kept to date, if she hxx mails out updates to the people that have purchased the Bunch Sheets (they have no addresses of where they are located). She was wanting me to send her my Selby line/I do not have it completed/ so was sorta wondering how other members of the Bunch Families that had putchased the book already were going to obtain my Selby/Bunch line when it was completed and sent into her.

2/ I would recommend that you take a look at what I have before you try and get a copy from her.

There is a yearly Bunch gathering on the second Sunday in June, which will be the 8th at the Springdale, Arkansas Park. Since I have never attended, I don't know who all attends, but thought I would go down for the day. I have no further details. If you would like to go, you might drive to Grove and we could go down together. My husband does not care for these type of things, so question him going. I had sorta planned on going down on Sat. Nite (visiting a cousin who lives there) attending the affair on Sunday, if things worked out that way. It was just an idea flexible to change. Would like to know what you think and we can decide as the time draws nearer.

I did not enclose my family group sheets, since your letter indicated your interest in the McCollough and to what extent you are compiling on the Bunch.

To give you a little personal info on my-self and family. Born 2 Feb. 1929 in Grove - my hsuband James William Davis (Jim) and I came here in 1958 with two small boys, Michael Warren and William Monroe. Mike is married and has 4 year old son. William, age 21, is attending his 4th year of college at the University of Tulsa - pursuing some field of medicine. We are semi-retired, having sold our large farm about four years ago and presently live on a 100 acres adjoining the city limits North of Grove on the Wolf Creek arm of the Lake. Actually only about 4 blocks from the Stoplight in downtown Grove.

So, we are near the same age - we really tried to retire too young with the way this inflation is, but have a travel trailer and wanted to travel while we were young and healthy enough to enjoy it.

From what I understand from this Nettie, she attended the Reunion and at this time, the way I understand it, others wanted the information that several of the family had put together (including Mrs. King) and this is how she got started with people getting copies from her.

If you should decide to try and drive over - give me a call as to when, it so happens that I have a few commitments coming up in the next four weeks at different intervals. I am planning on going to Nowata on a Feaster side of my family connection something the later part of this month, would like to know if this Mrs. King is still livingthere or some of her family.

Will help anyway that I can. I would like to add. On this David McC./ and Emaline Selby children, one of their daughters by name of Eliza is shown to have married a Joel Maxwell. I don't have her birthdate, but it would range 1860 or 1870.

I am very much interested in knowing more about this Sarah Wade Ray (Bunch) as I have another Ray on my Dad's side of the Family (my Great Grandmother) whoses maiden name was Ray, born in Tenn. or Ga. I am just wondering if this family is connected together. Sarah (Sallie) Ray born 17 Oct. 1842 first married a Mr. Matthews and then John S. Feaster in Benton Co., Missouri (GGF), born 9 Aug. 1821 in Tenn.. Do you know of anyone working on Ray family.

My kids are here from Okla. City, are now up for breakfast, so must close.

Dear Imogene:

Thank you for your letter concerning my inquiry in the Carroll County, Arkansas Historical Quarterly. I was pleased to hear from you and so surprised that CCHQ published my entire letter. It was meant to be of assistance to others with my mention of the Reminiscent History of the Ozarks.

I am very interested in the Bunch family history book that you obtained for $11.00. Will you please send me information as to the author and where it can be obtained. I have a small history of the Bunch family, which was shared by Mrs. Geneva King(the same lady who did the work on the Liberty Cemetery research), but would be glad to buy any history of our Bunch family.

I am sending all of the McCollough information that I have - which is not much. The spelling of this family name has changed so often with each census (see Moses in 1850, Newton Co. Ark)that they are very difficult to follow. I have tried to obtain Moses McCollough, War of 1812, records but the Archives say there are none. As for his wife, Mary Ellen Freed, I cannot find the name Freed any place and have no idea where they were married.

According to your dates concerning David McCollough(21 May 1844), it appears according to my records, that Thomas and Vicie Boyes McCollough may be the father instead of Moses, and that Moses is the grandfather of your David(see McCollough Family Record by Ollie Maxwell Suggs). It is possible that her records are incorrect. I think Moses may have had a son David, but think he was born in 1824(see 1850 Census).

I am very interested in obtaining your family group sheets to see the exact relationship to my husband, Dick, and hope that you will send them as soon as you can.

You are the first McCollough researcher I have had any contact with and am very excited to know that someone else is working on this group. I have rather "put the McCollough family aside" because I have had such little luck.

Hope the enclosed will give us both some clues to what we need and am anxious to hear from you after you see what I have sent.

Sincerely,

Mary

Note re-cycled envelope - I receive several periodicals, so just use these when I can - work at the public library and bring some of these home - "good as new"!!!

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

I recently joined the Carroll County Historical Society and received my first quarterly bulletin, in which I noticed your inquiry on the different families.

In research on my Selby Branch, I found out that my Great-Grandfather's Mother was a Bunch. After some correspondence, I obtained a Bunch family History. The first part is not indexed, which was written by an early ancestor. The second part is indexed and I did find there that a Sena McCullough married an Elbert Nunnaly.

This history goes by a number system and I really have not had an opportunity to set down and figure it all out. As I have it figured, it seems that Sena was the daughter of SarahElizabeth Susan Bunch born 28 July, 1843 in Mo. Mar: Alexander "Alec" McCullough who was born March 5, 1837 and died Feb. 25, 1921. Sarah E. died May 19, 1886 and both are buried at Liberty Cem. It list the childrens names but does not have any info as I can tell without searching further on your Sena and Elbert. I am sure that if there were information regarding them, it would be in the index. There is no address for any descendants.

I am working on the McCullough branch that is a descendant of a ~~Rufus called Doc that~~ David McCollough bor. 21 May, 1844 that married my Selby. His father was Moses McC. b. in North Carolina in 1794.

Anyway this History cost $11.00 and it is possible that you would want to look at it prior to purchasing one and I would be happy to have you come and look at it.

I perhaps am answering your letter of request too rapidly since I haven't had time to really examine the Bunch data. But, did want you to know I had it and that your query got some kind of consideration. It could be that someone in that area will reply.

Sincerely,

Imogene

P.S. I did a little study on this last note - there is nothing else on your family in there - We are related from Bunch family and I would like group sheets on your family back to Elbert - you can Xerox this off of what I have if you want -

Mary Nunneley

Bartlesville, Oklahoma 74003

Dear Mary:

I was just through Bartlesville yesterday on my return from Wichita and tried to call you. First your line was busy (this was about noon) and then, no answer. Sorry that we missed each other. My son, William is home on Spring break from Univ. of Tulsa and we made a fast trip to visit my neice and family. Excuse my typing, I have been at this desk all day trying to get half way caught up or do all I can today, as I have been booked for all next week with things to do and won't get to do any genealogy.

Yes, I am more than willing to share my Selby information. However, I just recently got a break on some of the lines and haven't got all information in even on my Great Grandparents. Some are just not very good about answering when I do find out their addresses. My effort was primarily to just get descendants of the Great, and what do you know, I got hooked and here I am trying to obtain information on all lines. So working on my family and also my husbands you can see that I really do have a task ahead of me. I only started in September, 1978, so you see you are ahead of me by far.

It was not until recently I learned of the Bunches - guess two months ago of Nathaniel Selby and Obedience Bunch. I am aut sure that I have all of their children's names yet and have only located about three of their children's descendants. I am just now getting started on the David McCollough that married Emaline Selby, so when I get that information, I will be happy to share them with you.

I noticed that Gove Bunch was listed in the Bunch history, but I haven't made contact with him. We have met at various things, but nothing really personally. I hope to get in touch with him in the near future.

I came back through Nowata and contacted a Mrs. McSpadden who is a relation on my father's side of the family. It was my intention to call or go by to see Mrs. King, but it started pouring down rain and my son was anxious to get home in order to get things ready to go back to Tulsa today.

I am sorry you can't make it down to go to Springdale. Does sound like you are going to have an exciting June. My best and congratulations, on all events.

A reply from Mrs. Pitcock - she does not send up dates to the various ones that have the histories. She merely tries to get the information included into future books. It is a shame, after so much effort has been made to get the information consolidated.

Keep in touch, I hope to try and get completed in the near future.

Sincerely,

Imogene

LEGACY OF AN ADOPTED CHILD

Once there were two women
Who never knew each other
One you do not remember
The other you call mother.

Two different lives
Shaped to make yours one.
One became your guiding star
The other became your sun.

The first gave you life
And the second taught you to live in it
The first gave you a need for love
And the second was there to give it.

One gave you a nationality
The other gave you a name
One gave you the seed of talent
The other gave you an aim.

One gave you emotions
The other calmed your fears
One saw your first sweet smile
The other dried your tears.

One gave you up —
It was all that she could do.
The other prayed for a child.
And God led her straight to you.

And now you ask me
Through your tears,
The age-old questions
Through the years;

Heredity or environment —
Which are you the product of?
Neither, my darling — neither
Just two different kinds of love.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Dear Cathie,

I am enclosing some material concerning the possible Cherokee connection to the Nunneley family. We all know that Grandma Nunneley (Melcenia Jane "Senie" McCollough Nunneley) had some Indian ancestry. Between 1906 and 1910, several members of her family (36) filed applications for admission. All 38 were rejected as showing no connection with the Eastern Cherokees and not living within the Cherokee Nation.
The deposition given by Alexander McCollough (father of Senie) on 5 Sep 1908 (enclosed) states that his Cherokee line is through his mother, Louisa Bays (some records call her Livicy). Livicy was the daughter of Josiah Bays and Lettice (Lettie) Mays. Alexander then deposes that his grandmother (Lettie Mays) had two brothers, Jim and Samuel. He says he does not know if Samuel moved with the Indians. Some records indicate that Lettie, Jim and Samuel are the children of Christian Mays and Elizabeth Ragan. Christian and Elizabeth were married in Halifax Co. VA on 30 Aug 1784.
The Bays and Mays families lived in Pittsylvania Co. and Halifax Co. in Virginia. The Bays were very early in Pittsylvania Co. (1760s), but the Mays line is hard to find. Some Mays, by the 1820s are in Surry Co. North Carolina. Did they return to an original home.....who knows??
Your line is as follows:

Cathie Lynn Nunneley m Larry Wayne Carter
Ronnie Leon Nunneley m Robbie Jean Haggard
Herbert Leon Nunneley m Mary Alice Roach
Elbert Alexander Nunneley m Melcenia Jane (Senie) McCollough
Alexander McCollough m Sarah Elizabeth Susan Bunch
Thomas McCollough m Louisa (Livicy) Bays
Josiah Bays m Lettice (Lettie) Mays (a Cherokee, per her grandson)
Christian Mays m Elizabeth Ragan

The McCollough family (originally from NC) moved from Greene Co. TN to Washington Co. Indiana by 1820. By 1830, they were in Greene Co. Indiana. The Bays family moved from Pittsylvania Co. VA to Greene Co. Indiana by the 1830s where Thomas McCollough married Louisa (Livicy) Bays on 2 Apr 1836 in Greene Co. IN.
There is a Mayes Cherokee line (proven), but I see no connection. A Samuel Mayes, born in TN on 11 Apr 1803, married Nancy Adair on 27 Jan 1824. Samuel died on 30 Dec 1858. As yet, I have found no information to tie this Samuel to Lettice (Lettie) Mays who married Josiah Bays, even though she did have a brother, Samuel. I have found no connection of the Mays family to any Tennessee or Georgia locations, only Virginia, North Carolina and Indiana.
To do further research, I would suggest that you go to the Shusterman-Benson Library, 3333 East 32nd Place. Ms Huber (think her name is Kathy) is the librarian in the genealogy section and is, for sure, the most knowledgeable on Cherokee research. I am sure she can give you some ideas on further research, but I feel that a Cherokee connection is all but impossible today.

Good luck -

Mary

My mother died here in the Cherokee Nation. We left Illinois in 1866. None of my family ever shared in a payment to the Cherokees."

Third: I give and bequeath unto my daughters, Josie Maxwell and Julia Douglass all of my personal property of which I may die seized and possessed including all of my household goods.

Fourth: I will and bequeath to my grandson, Omer McCullough, son of B. McCullough, my deceased son, the sum of Seventy (70) Dollars to be paid him by my son W. T. Fifth: I will and bequeath unto my son James McCullough, the sum of ($1.00) One Dollar, which said sum I direct my said executor to pay to said James McCullough as soon as practicable after my decease. The reasons I have for giving my said son, James McCullough, the sum of only One ($1.00) dollar is that he has heretofore received from me the sum of at least four hundred ($400.00) Dollars which I consider to be his full share in my estate.

Sixth: In making this will I intend to revoke all former wills by me made, and this will is made by me with the express understanding that my son, W. T. Mrs. Linda C. McInnis

Dear Linda,

I received your letter of 15 Mar 1993 concerning Moses McCollough and Mary Ellen "Polly" Freed. My husband, Dick, descends from their son, Thomas McCollough who married Luvicy Bayes (m. 2 Apr 1836 - Greene Co. IN).

The parents of Moses McCollough are unproven as far as I know. It has been suggested by several that a Thomas and Mary McCollough are his parents. I have a copy of a letter (1958) in which a gentleman, Mr. Hugh Benton to Mr. J. B. Bunch of Huntsville, AR is inquiring about the location of the grave of Moses McCollough. Mr. Benton writes "the father of Moses McCollough is undoubtly named David". The writer said he was a great-great grandson of Moses.

Early tax lists of Greene Co., TN list:

McCollum, James - 1812
John - 1805 and 1812
Thomas - 1805 (2) and 1812

McCollough, Joseph - 1805
Samuel - 1805
Thomas - 1805
William - 1805 (2)

McCulough, James - 1812

I suppose any of those McCollough (and variants) men could have been the father of Moses. Also listed in Greene Co., TN is a John Freet, 1812 (2).

As for Mary Ellen "Polly" Freed...she has been called "a half Indian" in several widely distributed genealogy papers. I do not believe that Mary Ellen was Indian. I believe she was very German. She was the daughter of John Freed and Regina Rife (m. 22/23 Sep 1794, Shenandoah Co. VA). Although unproven, Jim Freed (Freed Family Facts) believes that John Freed who married Regina Rife was the oldest son of John and Margaretha Graff (m. 18 Feb 1772, Montgomery Co. PA). I rather think Jim is correct. Regina Rife Freed's parents were Christian Rife and Elizabeth Hottel. I know nothing about Christian Rife, except that he apparently died by 7 Jul 1793 (probate in Shenandoah Co. VA). His wife, Elizabeth Hottel, was born ca 1758 in VA and died by 9 May 1819 (probate-Shenandoah Co VA). She married #2, Andrew Zirkle without issue. The parents of Elizabeth Hottel Rife Zirkle were Charles and Barbara Hottel. The parents of Charles Hottel (m. Barbara) were John Hottel and Margaret who came to America on the ship Pennsylvania on 11 Sep 1732. He born ca 1700 and died between 11 Aug 1760 (will) and 5 Nov 1760 (probate), Frederick Co. VA.

The information on the Hottel family is from:

History of the descendants of John Hottel (Immigrant from Switzerland to America) by Rev. W. D. Huddle, Shenandoah Pub. Co., 1930 (1183 pages)

This book, I believe, was republished a few years ago. Jim Freed had sent me copies of several pages and when I saw it advertised at a PA bookstore several years ago, I purchased it for my own library. My copy is one of the original editions. Had I waited for the second printing, the index probably would have been more complete.

I have not copied any of the material I have, because it will be silly to duplicate what you may already have found. If you can let me know what you have, we can work from there.

I have a question...have you found Moses McCollough on the 1840 census? This is one thing I cannot find!

I was so glad to hear from you and look forward to sharing material. Please do send your family group sheets and let me know if you want me to copy some material.

Sincerely,

Dear Mary,

I was thrilled to get your letter yesterday. It added three generations to my pedigree.

We got the computer program, prodigy in February. Before that time the furtherest back I had gotten was Francis M. Snow married to Sarah. Through prodigy I learned that Sarah's surname was McCullough and who her parents were. Since then I have added nine new families. Because I have just started on this line I do not have any of the information you were telling me about. I would love to have copies of the information you have collected. Please let me know what the copy costs are and I will gladly pay you for them.

I have received two packets recently, one on the Freeds and one on Moses McCullough. The one on the Freeds contained copies of some past Freed newsletters. It listed several of John and Regina's children but I am not sure if it is a complete list. It lists Daniel, Joseph, Jacob, John, Elizabeth, and Mary Ellen. Is that all of them? Do you have any additional information on them?

The packet on Moses McCullough is a study which was made by Edna Hazel McCullough Lowery. It was sent to me by Betty Summers who is the editor of the McCullough Newsletter. It has lots of interesting information. She has many tax, land, court, and census records listed. She says she doesn't have absolute proof but by process of elimination she feels that Thomas and Mary are the parents of Moses. She was not able to locate the 1840 census either.

I can't wait to hear from you again with more news about our family. If you would like any information from the two sources I mentioned please let me know what and I will send them to you. Thanks again for the information you sent.

Sincerely,

Linda

KEY TO THIS HISTORY

The plan followed in this work is to give the history of the descendants of John Hottel in chronological order by branches.

The exponential sign is used throughout to indicate the generation from the Immigrant, and is found at the right of each individual.

All children of the same family are given the same number. Each number is followed by a letter joined to it by a hyphen. The letter indicates the place of the child in the family. The letters x and y are used to distinguish family lines thus: 2-a Charles Hottel; 2x-d George Hotel; 2y-e Barbara Anna Hottel. Where the children of a family are listed, the first child (unless he died young or there is no available record of his life) is carried forward with his number, and his history given. His descendants are then carried through the successive generations. Each child of the list with his descendants is brought forward in like manner. Where families are large and descendants numerous, especially among earlier generations, the parent may be separated from the younger children by a number of pages. To trace the ancestry of any individual back to John Hottel, the Immigrant, use the method illustrated as follows:

The number, chosen at random, is 46-c (Charles line). The letter indicates the third child in the family. Since the account of a first child (if recorded) follows immediately after the list of children—or the parent if no list is given—from 46-c trace back to 46-b, then to 46-a, the first child, and as no list is given, the parent, 28-e, will be the preceding number. From 28-e trace back to 28-d, (28-c is missing, owing to early death) to 28-b, to 28-a the first child. Above the list here given will be found 6-b, the parent. From 6-b turn back to 6-a and above the list find 5-a, the parent. From 5-a find 4-a; from 4-a find 3-b and trace back to 3-a where above the list find 2-a and from 2-a to 1-a, John Hottel, the Immigrant.

Where the reader is referred to a certain name and number for further record of a person or family, if reference is not easily located by number see index for page numbers of the name.

The usual abbreviations of b. for born, d. for died, m. for married, unm. for unmarried, etc., will be found throughout this work.

SPELLING OF THE FAMILY NAME

Hottel, Hottle, Hottell, Hottal, Hoddle, Huddle, Huddell, Huttel. Few names offer opportunity for such varied spellings as does ours. How the fathers spelled the family name is a question of vital interest. The Immigrants' Registry at the Port Philadelphia, according to I. D. Rupp, has it Hottel, which is undoubtedly the original name. The spelling would indicate German nationality. Our early forebears spoke the German language and understood nothing but German, while clerks and school teachers who knew nothing but English spelled the name according to their understanding, or, perhaps, to suit themselves. We can readily conclude that the German awkwardness in pronouncing, and the English lack of comprehension, is accountable for the differences. The name has undergone changes in spelling and pronunciation, especially in the many languages and dialects through which it has perhaps passed. The mark (X) after the Immigrant's name under his will and testament indicates that he was not able to write in English and the clerk wrote it John Hoddle. The land grant to him (1750) in Shenandoah Co., Virginia by Lord Thomas Fairfax, spelled the name John Huddle. The Census of the same state (1790) spells the name Huddle. The softened pronunciation of the Hottel name resulted in spelling it Huddle. This is the Anglicized form of it. Some familes at different times adopted the name Huddle, while the major part of the relationship by heredity and preference still bear the original name Hottel or Hottle.

IMMIGRANTS—WHY THEY FLED FROM EUROPE

During the wars of religious persecution the best and thriftiest citizens of Europe left and settled in America. They fled from the Pharaohs of that country, crossed the ocean and sojourned in the wilderness that you and I might enjoy the blessings of this age.

The celebrated Edict of Nantes which, given by Henry IV of France, April 13, 1598, had guaranteed religious freedom to the Protestants of France, was revoked Oct. 22, 1685 by Louis XIV, King of France, for the purpose of destroying French Protestantism at a single stroke. By this unwise act all Protestants were ordered to give up their faith and return to the communion of Rome under penalty of having their property confiscated and themselves put beyond the protection of the law. Protestants were denied freedom of worship, equality of rights and religious peace. Their churches were closed and their ministers were persecuted. The regions where Protestant population predominated were reduced to desolation, and it is estimated by students of history that France by her frightful ravages and barbarity lost a half million of her best industrious citizens. The persecution that drove the Protestants out of France, extended to Switzerland and the northern provinces of the Netherlands and other countries. History relates that the French and Bavarians invaded the Rhenish provinces and rioted fearfully until the country seemed like a desert. Inspired by the brave venture of the Pilgrims, their fellow-exiles, the Swiss and German refugees of that section made their way to Holland and eventually to the haven offered them in the New World.

The early immigrants in America wrote to their relatives and friends in Europe, advising them that if they intended to emigrate to America, they should by all means avoid New York where the authorities had treated them to hatefully. These representations made a strong impression and induced immigrants to avoid that state and locate in Pennsylvania.

Immigration into Pennsylvania was started in the proper sense of the word by the philanthropic and pious Friend, William Penn, a Quaker, who had already traveled and labored in that country before he entered upon the actual possession of the immense tract of land which has immortalized his name. His broad sympathies and guarantee of religious and political freedom attracted the oppressed and persecuted. They came by thousands from Europe and settled in the then three counties of Pennsylvania: Philadelphia, Bucks and Lancaster. The German, Swiss, French, and Dutch formed the greatest portions of the first settlements and were the ancestors of the toiling millions of today. The Pennsylvania historian, I. D. Rupp, counts in his book over 30,000 names of immigrants, from 1727 to 1776, heads of families and other males over sixteen years of age, that took the oath of allegiance to the Crown of Great Britain, who emigrated to Pennsylvania, and also to Virginia and North Carolina, and yet his lists are far from being complete.

The influx of immigrants to Pennsylvania from Germany, France, Switzerland and Holland was so great it called forth public attention. Genuine alarm was felt for the future of the province, but finding that these harmless people were a great source of benefit to the country the objections were withdrawn. The Governor said, in 1738, "This province has been for some years the asylum of the distressed Protestants of Europe, and I believe it may be truthfully said that the present flourishing condition of our country is due to the economy and industry of these harmless law-abiding people."

To think of married couples coming alone and settling among strangers, is a wrong view, for multitudes came from the same community at the same time. Frequently a ship was chartered by a church and the whole congregation came together and settled at the same place. It was an age of religious colonies. It has been found that a number of families who were associated in Europe, moved side by side from place to place, for nearly 200 years. Language, religion, early associations and family affinities held them together. They were religious dissenters, a class to themselves, and they largely helped to make the civil and religious conditions peculiar to this country.

ORIGIN OF THE HOTTELS AND FAMILY CONNECTIONS

It is firmly believed that the Hottels are of Swiss lineage. They are noted for fidelity and quiet demeanor. When the Reformation under Dr. Luther and his contemporaries swept over Europe they embraced the Protestant faith. John Hottel, the Progenitor of this vast lineage, came to America in the ship that carried between two and three hundred Palatinate immigrants. The term "Palatinate" refers to the beautiful Rhenish provinces of the German Empire. Since our American ancestor and his family were associated with this class of immigrants the conclusion is irresistible that they were residents of that country at least for a period of time. It is easy to account for their presence in the German Empire, Switzerland and other countries, when the seventeenth and the early part of the eighteenth centuries were marked by religious intolerance and the people fled from one country to another for refuge.

The author is under the painful necessity of acknowledging to our numerous relatives that the story of the original Hottel family seems to have vanished into the shades of the forest, drawing around it a veil of mystery and romance beyond which speculations are unable to penetrate. John Hottel's parentage, the exact time and place of his birth, residence in Europe and in the colonies before coming to the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia is a sealed book, it may be, to all mortal eyes forever.

Nevertheless, this work would be regarded incomplete if it did not contain some traditions, unsatisfactory as they may be, about our first American ancestor and his family.

BENJAMIN HOTTEL, Council Grove, Kans., a Civil War veteran, and a great-grandson of Charles, is credited with the information that the Hottel family are descendants of the Royal Family of Holland. It is related that a copy of the record signed by the Crown of Holland was obtained for him by his captain in the Civil War who made a business trip to Holland after the close of the rebellion. Papers containing this information was ruined by a flood about a quarter-century ago. An effort to verify the record has been unsuccessful. A similar tradition was disclosed by a descendant of another branch of the family, but it could not be proved.

HON. J. KLAHR HUDDLE, Department of State, Washington, D. C., who made this subject a special study, is credited with a bit of interesting information definitely to the effect that John Hottel was a Huguenot, and that the family hailed originally from Southern France. A verification of this theory was obtained from Prof. D. F. Huddle, Alexandria, La.

COL. SETH WELDY, Logan, Ohio, an attorney, a man of recognized ability who frequently practiced in the Supreme Court of the United States, referring to his mother (Susannah Huddle) in his autobiography, said, "She was of Swiss descent." This latter tradition is strengthened by the fact that our ancestor and his descendants were closely associated by intermarriages in this country with the Kellers, Rinkers, Fravels, Sagers, Funkhousers, and possibly others whose ancestors hailed from Switzerland, the land of the famous Alps. These Swiss ancestors had much in common in Switzerland and in Germany, were related to each other by marriage and religious ties in Europe, and came to America together because of these relationships, seeking a peaceful home in the "New World."

"Thus, then, like the noted Rhine having its source far back in the snow-capped Alps, we as a family have our source far back in the country of Tell and Zwingli. The blood in our veins, and the thoughts of our minds may still have after so long a time, some affinity with the past, how much we cannot know, much less describe."

OUR MILITARY ANCESTORS

SOLDIERS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

JOHN HOTTEL, the Immigrant, departed this life (1760) before the war for American Independence. His two sons, Charles and George, were too far advanced in life to be eligible to the military service of the Continental Army. However, some of their sons helped the Patriot Army to fight for American Freedom. Believing that many of their descendants will appreciate it, we herewith record the names of our Revolutionary soldiers. The page number refers you to where the war record may be found in this work unless otherwise recorded, as follows:

JOSEPH HOTTEL, son of Charles, see page 13 and 168.

DANIEL HOTTEL, son of Charles, see page 14 and 236.

JOHN JACOB HOTTEL, son of George, see page 399 and 505.

JACOB HAMMAN, son-in-law of George Hottel, see page 748.

JOHN HUDDLE, is listed in Company 6, Philadelphia Militia on return of Aug. 18, 1779. Penna. Archives, 6th Series, Vol. 1, page 423.

CORPORAL WILLIAM HUDDLE, enlisted Aug. 10, 1780. Penna. Archives, 6th Series, Vol. 1, pages 91, 241, 251.

MICHEAL HUDDLE, is shown on general muster roll of Northampton Co., Militia, 1782-3. Penna. Archives, Series 5, Vol. VIII, page 87.

Note—The last three mentioned belong to the Pennsylvania Branch of the Hottel family.

VETERANS OF SUBSEQUENT WARS

Many of our kindred took prominent part in later wars, the Civil War, the Spanish-American War, and the World War. Quite a number have sealed their devotion to the country with their lives. Patriotic blood usually flows at high tide when our country's flag is in danger.

The slavery question, especially in Virginia, became a troublesome one, and many of our kindred emigrated to other states, where slavery, by the act of Congress, could never exist. Many of our relatives, during the Civil War, rendered military services both in the Federal Army and that of the Southern Confederacy. In the body of the genealogy honorable mention has been made of all military services in the various wars.

JOHANNES (JOHN) HOTTEL'S WILL

A copy of John Hottel's last will and testament is herewith produced in full, bearing date August 11, 1760, admitted to probate in the Court of Frederick Co., Virginia, at Winchester, November 5, 1760, as follows:

In the name of God, Amen:

I, John Hoddle, of the county of Frederick and Colony of Virginia, being in health of body and of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given to God, calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing it is appointed for all men to die once, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hand of God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of in the following manner and form.

First, that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid. I also give and bequeath to Margaret, my dear wife, one full third part of my whole estate by her to be enjoyed during her natural life, and then at her decease to fall to my executors. Also, I give to my eldest son, Charles Hoddle, ten pounds of current money of Virginia, to be raised and levied out of my estate.

Also, I give to my youngest son, George Hoddle, and my son-in-law, George Keller the—which two I likewise constitute, make and ordain my executors of this, my last will and testament—all and singular, my lands together with all my movable estate, to be equally divided between them after my decease and the decease of my wife, then by them freely to be possessed and enjoyed, and I hereby utterly disavow, revoke and disannul all and every other former testaments, wills, legacies, and bequests and executors by me in any wise before named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and sixty.

JOHN X HODDLE. [Seal]

At a court held for Frederick County on the 5th day of November, 1760.

This will was exhibited into Court by George Huddle and George Keller, the executors therein named who made oath thereto, according to law and the same being proved by the oaths of the witnesses thereto, is ordered to be recorded.

Will book No. 2, page 444. Teste: Arch Wager, C. C.

The above will is very interesting showing the religious frame of mind and the approximate date of the death of the testator. The reader will notice the omission of the names of John and Henry who remained in Pennsylvania. We have assumed in the foregoing that they were his sons. Either they have received their portion while their father was still living, or they were not his sons. We have delayed too long before attempting a history of this important family so that the connecting links probably have been lost forever.

JOHN HOTTEL

1-a JOHANNES (JOHN) HOTTEL, with whom this history begins, was born in Europe, about 1700, where he grew to manhood, took ship Pennsylvania, John Stedman, Master, probably in June, with his wife, MARGARET, and five children under sixteen years of age, at Rotterdam, Holland, landed in Colonial America at Port Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, September 11, 1732, the year George Washington, the father of our country, was born. John Hottel must have been still a young man at that time. Of his parents we have not been able to find any trace. Probably they were lost in the terrible commotions of Europe, and their records destroyed.

John Hottel and Margaret were married about 1720, and their five children were all born in Europe. The family name of Margaret, her parentage, time and place of birth in the old country are unknown.

This family located in the northern part of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, where they lived eighteen years and by thrift and industry acquired lands and homes, so that the name Hottel appears on the tax records a few years after their advent. These immigrants took the oath of allegiance to the Crown of Great Britain. In religion they were either Lutherans, Reformed, or possibly Mennonites. They spoke the German language and were faithful, patriotic citizens.

According to Prof. I. D. Rupp, (Sept. 21, 1732) Ulrich Hottel who was sick, arrived with 188 passengers. No further record is given. Probably he was a brother of John.

Children of John and Margaret Hottel

2-b Johannes (John) Hottel^2, b. 1724
2-c Heinrich (Henry) Hottel^2, b. 1726
2x-d Jerick (George) Hottel^2, b. 1728
2y-e Anna (Barbara Anna) Hottel^2, b. 1730

Dates are approximate. These children constitute the ancestors of the whole Hottel family in America.

PARENTS AND THREE CHILDREN MOVE TO THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY, VIRGINIA

Public records show that our Progenitor, John Hottel, Margaret, his wife, and three children, Charles, George and Barbara Anna, emigrated in 1750 to the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, where their descendants are legion today. John and Henry remained in Pennsylvania. Why they became separated is unknown. The descendants of John Hottel rank among the prominent citizens of the Keystone State. They held their Third Family Reunion at Waldheim Park near Allentown, July 26, 1917, at which Rev. John T. Huddle, D. D., of Washington, D. C. and the writer as their honored guests delivered addresses. Those represented on the program were, Joseph M. Hottel, Benneville Hottle, Rev. Benjamin Hottel, Edwin B. Hottle, Lewis L. Schuler, Sylvester Egner, George W. Hottel, Eastburn R. Hottle, J. Abraham Huttel, Joseph S. Hottle, Rev. Henry H. Moyer, Helen Kilmer and Mrs. Frank A. Kaufman. This branch of the Hottel family is not included in the body of the genealogy. What became of Henry, brother of John Hottel, is unknown. Probably he died unmarried.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY

Less than 200 years ago not a white man dwelt in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. Scientists claim it was at one time a lake, evidenced by the discovery of fossils and sea-shells high up on the mountains. When discovered by the white man it was a blooming prairie, the only timber being along the rivers and creeks. It was then a dark and terrible wilderness, the home of the Red Man, where the reckless hunter and daring adventurer feared to pass. Wild game, fur-bearing animals of all descriptions, wild fowl and fish abounded there.

In 1716, Gov. Spottswood with a party of 50 gallant "Knights of the Golden Horseshoe," breasted the steep slopes and tangled underbrush of the Blue Ridge Mountains coming at last to the summit at "Swift Run Gap." He was the first white man to behold the Valley in its primitive beauty. Hence this entire section drained by the Shenandoah River was named in honor of Governor Spottswood. It was once the immense county of Spottsylvania.

In 1734 there was a division of Spottsylvania and the Valley became a part of Orange. In 1738 it was again divided and became the two Counties—Frederick and Augusta. Dunmore County was taken from Frederick in 1772 and in 1777 the Legislature altered the name of Dunmore to Shenandoah. Rockingham County was organized in 1778. Other divisions were soon made. This country was long overrun by Indians of different tribes from whom it could not be bought, because there was a dispute as to the claimants.

The influx of immigration to the Valley began about 1732. Joist Hite, with his family, was one of the first settlers but he was soon followed by the Germans of Pennsylvania and other states. Some came direct to the Valley on landing. Indians vanished into the shades of the forest as the whites enlarged the boundaries of civilization. Finally they all left the low country in the year 1754. Tradition places the nucleus of a town where Winchester now stands as early as 1732. Authentic records show that the first court was held in Frederick County in 1743.

The great Valley of Virginia, drained by the waters of the Shenandoah River, is bounded on the east by the Blue Ridge Mountains and on the west by the Alleghenies, and stretches from the Potomac on the north to the Tennessee border on the south. This includes the smaller Valley of Shenandoah, which is from thirty to fifty miles in width and over a hundred miles in length. It has scenic and historical attractions and natural wonders—the most beautiful valley in the world.

EXACT LOCATION OF THE JOHN HOTTEL HOMESTEAD

Over near North Mountain on the head waters of Toms Brook, out a short distance from the village of Toms Brook, lies the original Hottel homestead, containing 341 acres, which was purchased from Lord Thomas Fairfax, Aug. 30, 1750. This body of land lies six miles north of Woodstock, (Muellerstadt), the seat of Shenandoah County founded in 1760. It is believed the Hottel domicile stood near the Hottel spring on the back road leading to Mt. Olive, near the present residence of David H. Keller. We sometimes wish these worthy ancestors who invaded and occupied these premises in the long ago, could return and reveal themselves to our curious eyes. Nearly two centuries ago they joined the spectral hosts that dwell among the stars, while in yonder Keller graveyard their ashes sleep. Lovingly Virginia's skies are arched above their tombs.

CHILDREN AND THEIR DESCENDANTS

Charles, George and the only daughter, Barbara Anna Hottel, married and lived their entire lives near the vicinity of their parents. They reared prosperous and progressive families. Charles was the father of 11 children; George was the father of 9 children; Barbara Anna, who married George Keller, was the mother of 9 children. Their descendants in the Shenandoah Valley are legion. Apparently the Valley could not accommodate them all, hence in the early years of the nineteenth century the Hottel bee hive swarmed, and today thousands are scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Alaska and Canada to Florida and Texas. A great majority of them have adhered to the faith of their fathers and are a fine people; some have attained to great age, few to great wealth. The majority are well-to-do. Some, if poor, are very respectable. None, as far as known, have been pensioners of public charity. While some have attained to eminence in the literary world and have acquired fame, others have blazoned their names in their country's annals and their deeds have engaged the historian's pen.

They are included among the various vocations of the business and professional world. We find ministers of the various denominations, as well as doctors, lawyers, judges, teachers, farmers; intelligent and educated men and women, high school and college graduates in vast numbers.

THE OLD FRIEDEN'S CHURCH AND HOTTEL-KELLER SCHOOLHOUSE

On the original Hottel homestead near where the first Hottel domicile stood, the old Frieden's church was built in 1821. It was owned jointly by the Reformed and Lutheran congregations. Many of our kin of that day worshipped in this church, being identified with one or the other of these bodies. The congregations were separated and the building abandoned and torn down in 1880 and separate churches were erected. The Lutherans since then worship at St. Matthew's not far distant, and the Reformed people at Harrisville.

A community schoolhouse was built at the rear of the Frieden's church, familiarly known as the Hottel-Keller schoolhouse. This was erected by free-will offerings of money, labor and material. George Hottel, John Snarr, the Kellers and many others figured prominently in this educational enterprise. They believed that education was essential to good citizenship and the welfare of our country.

CHARLES HOTTEL

2-a CHARLES HOTTEL^2, oldest son of the Immigrant, John Hottel, was born in Europe about 1722, came to America with his parents when a mere boy and grew to manhood in Bucks Co., Pa. The public records show that he came to Augusta Co., Virginia (1748-49)—where he owned real estate several years in advance of his parents. He settled on a farm of 250 acres one mile west of the village of Toms Brook. Here near the buildings he and his wife were buried without proper markers and inscriptions. The major part of his life was spent in Shenandoah County. He was among the outstanding pioneers of that community and was a prosperous farmer, owning 1318 acres of land in the above county at the time of his death. The surname of his wife, BARBARA, is unknown. She preceded him to the grave.

Prompted by premonitions of death as a result of being kicked by a horse, Charles made his will. The precision and painstaking care in disposing of his properties is particularly noticeable. He parcelled out land values to his sons and money values to his daughters except Magdalene. The document was written in German, and it stipulated that his son Jacob should maintain him in old age until death; therefore, he departed this life on the farm east of Maurertown, Va. The will is dated June 10. 1778, ordered to be translated in the English language and probated, Sept. 12, 1814.

An abstract of the will of Charles Hottel taken from Probate records at Woodstock is as follows:

1. He speaks of having been hurt by a horse, provides for decent Christian burial, and makes bequests.

2. To John, 285 acres of land valued at 400£, deducted 10£ in addition to the alloted sum for each and owed his brothers and sisters, 217£, 5s. and 6 p.

3. To Jacob, 215 acres of land valued at 400£, deducted his allotment, owed 227£, 5s. and 6p.

4. To Joseph, 250 acres of land valued at 260£, deducted his heritage, owed 87£, 5s. and 6p.

5. To Solomon. 204 acres of land valued at 400£, and 6p., deducted his allowance, owed 227£, 5s. and 12p.

6. To Daniel, 201 acres of land valued at 300£, deducted his allowance, owed 127£, 5s. and 6p.

7. To Magdalene, 163 acres of land and 22£, 14s. and 10p. equals the correct amount due her.

The value of the original estate totals 1910£ for the sum of 1318 acres. Deducting the 10£ which John, the eldest, received, 1900£ was the total remaining for equal distribution. The total of the sums owed by the five brothers, as noted in the foregoing analysis, is 886£, 9s. and 4p. Deducting from this amount due to Magdalene, leaves a remainder of 863£, 14s. and 10p. This sum of money to be divided among the sisters, Barbara, Mary, Elizabeth, Anna and Susannah, who received no bequests of land. divided by five, their number, the result is the sum of 172£, 14s. and 10p. for each.

3-a JOHN HOTTEL^3, first child of Charles and Barbara Hottel, was born near Toms Brook, Shenandoah Co., Va., about 1747; he died prior to Mar. 3, 1813, intestate, having never married. His father devised to him 285 acres of land on the southeast side of the North Shenandoah River near Edinburg to which subsequent purchases were added, making his holdings very valuable at the time of his demise. His possessions were divided among his brothers and sisters. He and Solomon jointly owned their father's family Bible, which likely contained the record of the family. Solomon at the sale of John's household effects purchased John's half and thus owned the entire volume.

3-b JACOB HOTTEL^3, second child of Charles and Barbara Hottel, was born near Toms Brook, Shenandoah Co., Va., about 1749. Records show that he survived his brother John by only a few months or part of a year. He made his will June 25, 1813, but was too weak to sign his name to it and likely died shortly after. The tract of land containing 215 acres two and a half miles east of the village of Maurertown upon which he spent his entire life, was given to him by his father, Charles Hottel. The residence, a large log house—remodeled in later years by siding and paint—is still standing and in good preservation. This domicile is known by the residents of the community as the old Hottel home. Jacob was very fond of his father and maintained him in his old age until his death.

According to Miley, genealogist, Jacob Hottel married the widow of Joseph Rhodes, Sr., who died in 1766. His will was probated at Winchester, in Aug. 1766. Before her marriage, Mrs. Rhodes was MARY ELIZABETH STRICKLER. Jacob, Sr. provided for his surviving widow and two children, Jacob, Jr., and Mary, each one-third of the estate, also each one-third of that he was entitled to out of the estate of his brother John which he did not live to receive.

4-a Jacob Hottel^4, b. probably in Jan. 1766
4-b Mary Hottel^4, b. Mar. 3, 1768

4-a JACOB ("SNITZ") HOTTEL-HUDDLE, JR.^{4}, son of Jacob, Sr., was born two and a half miles south east of Maurertown, Va., 1766; d. prior to Mar. 12, 1845, date of estate of settlement; m. Dec. 6, 1795, BARBARA ANN STOVER, dau. of Samuel and Barbara (Lionberger) Stover, a granddaughter of Daniel and Eve (Albright) Stover, of Page County.

P. S. Rhodes, associate historian, is credited with the write-up of Mr. Huddle's life, as follows: "On his father's farm he grew to manhood, receiving little opportunity for education. However, he was endowed by nature with an unusually well balanced mind, which was improved and developed by association with men of affairs, so that in his mature years he was regarded as being far above the average in intelligence and sound judgment, and was well read for the time in which he lived.

In early life he was a member of the Mennonite Church and was exceedingly plain and unassuming in his manners and dress, wearing homespun and homewoven woolen and linen, being seldom seen in any other apparel.

During the Revolutionary War he was subject to draft into the service of the colonies, but being a Mennonite with conscientious objections to military service, he endeavored to escape or elude conscription by hiding away in the mountains east of his home. By this means he escaped military service during the Revolution. Warfare was strictly forbidden in the doctrines and customs of his church.

He was a very industrious and energetic and, possibly, the most successful farmer in the central part of Shenandoah County in his day. He loved his land and live stock and general farming which netted him handsome profits each year; and this income carefully augmented from the accruing revenues from other investments was invested in farming land. He pursued this method throughout his active life until he owned in Shenandoah County over 900 acres of land, most of it very desirable. He owned farms in the Counties, Page, Frederick and Rockingham, also in Licking Co., Ohio. Besides he possessed a large personal estate, and at least two negro slaves whose name were Jack and Tom; but he evidently did not take kindly to the slave trade or ownership of them which was so common in that day as he gave the two he had their liberty.

The writer has heard men who knew him well personally make the assertion that at the time of Mr. Huddle's death his estate was estimated at $200,000. When we consider the difficulties under which this large estate was accumulated, it seems almost impossible to have amassed such a sum in the span of his life time. Crops had to be raised with few implements now seen on farms; wheat was harvested with the reap hook and grain cradle, threshed by tramping with horses, and ground in mills on adjacent streams. The flour was hauled on wagons to Alexandria, Baltimore or Fredericksburg, where it was sold for specie or exchanged for salt, coffee and manufactured articles not yet produced in this country, but imported from Europe.

Many interesting stories are told illustrating the personal characteristics of the man. Upon one occasion he was in Woodstock dressed in his usual plain garb when there appeared on the street several men from southwest Virginia or Tennessee taking a number of fine young horses to the eastern markets and while stopping Mr. Huddle examined the animals very carefully. Selecting one of the finest specimens he asked the price of that particular one. The owner sized up Mr. Huddle by his plain clothes and thinking him unable to buy anything, remarked in a commanding tone, "As it is you I will take ——— dollars for him." But to his surprise Mr. Huddle put his arm through the bridle rein, and taking a roll of bills from his pocket proceeded to count out the money to the stranger who, realizing his predicament, began begging off, trying to annul the bargain. Mr. Huddle, however, insisting that a bargain is a bargain, paid for the horse and took him away.

The subject of our sketch was generally known by the nickname "Snitz" Huddle. This name was given him, according to one of his great-grandsons, in the following way: When hiding in the mountains during the Revolution, on one occasion his stay was so prolonged that he was almost starved when he reached his home. Getting hold of some dried apples he ate so many that when they swelled up in him it became necessary to bandage him.

Another tradition is to the effect that he paid the minister who solemnized his marriage with dried apples, commonly called snits. Still another tradition has it that he was very fond of dried apples and carried a supply in his pockets for occasional eating.

The Crabill farm lying due south of Maurertown was received by inheritance from his father in 1813. This farm was always regarded as a very valuable property. It was valued by his father at 600 pounds, English money.

The Marsh farm adjoining the home place he bought from the Mark Miller heirs for 1810 pounds, seemingly a large price, but he made it a valuable farm. About 1805, Mr. Huddle purchased from the heirs of David Stover the farm containing 450 acres of splendid land lying on the North Fork of the Shenandoah River. On this farm, regarded as one of the best in his section, he spent the latter years of his life.

There being no Church of his choice (Mennonite), in his vicinity and County, Mr. Huddle in the later years of his life identified himself with the Disciple Church at Zion near his home. He and his wife were buried in a private cemetery on the farm where they spent the most of their days. Six children were born near Maurertown, Va.

3-f ELIZABETH HOTTEL^3, sixth child of Charles and Barbara Hottel, b. near Toms Brook, Va., about 1758; m. first, CHRISTIAN RIFE (REIFF). To them six daughters were born. Their daughter, Elizabeth, qualified as administratrix of her father's estate, July 9, 1793, which fact indicates he had died prior to that date. Elizabeth (Hottel) Rife later married ANDREW ZIRKLE, without issue. According to records, her will was probated Mar. 9, 1819, which proves she had died some time before this event. As far as could be ascertained, the Rife heirs sold out and left Shenandoah Co., prior to the Civil War, excepting Mary, who remained near Woodstock. Her descendants are numerous in Shenandoah, Rockingham, Bath and Augusta Counties, Va.

717-c MARY RIFE^4, b. near Woodstock, Va., m. 1790, HENRY HAUN, b. of German parentage, pioneer stock. This is the first entrance of the Hauns into the Hottel family. Since their immigration many years ago they have become prolific and are desirable home makers and good citizens. They are quiet, energetic and industrious. Henry Haun, and Mary, his wife, lived, prospered, died and were buried on their farm of 200 acres two miles north of Woodstock. Most of their descendants reside in and about Woodstock. He makes mention in his will of Daniel Grable, his son-in-law, but daughter's name is not given. Many dates of births and deaths are not available for the genealogy.

3-g MAGDALENE HOTTEL^{3}, seventh child of Charles, b. near Toms Brook, Shenandoah Co., Va., Aug. 14, 1759; d. Dec. 10, 1840; m. Jan. 27, 1783, JOSEPH ROADS, son of Joseph and *Mary (Strickler) Roads, and grandson of Mennonite Elder, John and Eve (Albright) Roads. Joseph Roads and wife, lived and died, on a farm on Hawksbill Creek, seven miles south of Luray, Page Co., Va., and to this was added by subsequent purchases, including a farm at the foot of the Blue Ridge mountains and lands on the east side of the North Shenandoah River near Edinburg. His wife, Magdalene, inherited from her father 163 acres. He died intestate, in 1813, or early part of 1814, dates of birth and death are unavailable, but it is known that he was about 52 years old at the time of his death. His estate was administered by his son Joseph and son-in-law, William R. Almond. The appraisement of livestock, farm implements, and household furnishings, etc. amounted to 784 pounds, Virginia money; while his notes, bonds and other miscellaneous accounts amounted to 2429 pounds, making a total of 3213 pounds, or its equivalent of $10,710. This does not include real estate of any kind. His lands were afterwards divided and settled by his heirs and were valued at more than $10,000. His whole estate amounted to more than $20,000. He owned land and a mill near the White House, in addition to the above properties. It is related by some of his descendants that he had a number of tame deer on his farm, which is clearly shown to be true by the appraisement, and that these tame deer were kept in the fields adjoining the Blue Ridge mountains. At the upper side of those fields he maintained a high fence to keep them in, and when the wild deer found the tame ones feeding in the enclosure, they jumped over the high fence and could not readily jump out; thus many of them were killed for venison and hides. He also trapped many wolves along the streams that passed through his farm by baiting steel traps with carcasses of domestic animals that chanced to die. Deer and wolves were plentiful at that time, and the latter were destructive to small domestic animals and poultry. To this couple five children were born.

*Mary Strickler Roads, dau. of Abraham the pioneer, following the death of her husband, married Jacob Hottel, son of Charles, and moved to the Crabill farm near Maurertown, Va.

To the memory of Rev. John Roads, his wife and six children, who were killed by the Indians six generations ago (1764), a monument was erected on the George R. Bauserman farm, three miles north of Luray, Page Co., Va., by his descendants. In 1926 it was unveiled with ceremonies in the presence of hundreds of people. The monument is the handiwork of Philip M. Kauffman, aged 80, of Luray, who took the stone from the foothills of the Massanutten Mountain, and did the lettering without assistance. He is the great-great-great-grandson of Roads. At the unveiling, Philip S. Rhodes, Woodstock, remotely related, spoke. To him belongs the credit for much material found in this chapter. The name Roads originally "Rood." "Hans" (John) Rood, immigrant from Switzerland, later the name was changed to Roads, Roades, some to Rhodes.

*Noah Keyser is the son of Major Andrew Keyser, a soldier of the Revolutionary War, and a grandson of Charles Keyser, who was born in Germany. He came to America as a hired soldier in the service of Great Britian to fight the French and Indians. Charles married Miss Shelly of Phila. and built a house near the mouth of the Hawksbill. We are indebted to the Strickler history for this bit of information.

Dear Mary,

I got your name and address from a 1984 Freed Family Facts. I am a decedent of Moses McCullough and Mary Ellen "Polly" Freed. I see from the newsletter that you are also. Do you have any additional information of this line? Do you have a list of her brothers and sisters? I would appreciate any information you might have.

Do you have any information on Moses McCullough's parents? I have them listed as Thomas and Mary. Is that correct?

My line goes through Sarah J. McCullough who married Francis M. Snow. Their daughter Sarah Elizabeth is my great grandmother.

Enclosed is a self addressed stamped envelope. I appreciate your time in helping me. Thanks in advance!

My first cousin from my mother's side of the family works in Bartlesville, Ron Frederick. I'm not sure if he lives there or in Tulsa. My Mom grew up in Bethany.

Sincerely,

Linda

JOHN HOTTEL

1-a JOHANNES (JOHN) HOTTEL, with whom this history begins, was born in Europe, about 1700, where he grew to manhood, took ship Pennsylvania, John Stedman, Master, probably in June, with his wife, MARGARET, and five children under sixteen years of age, at Rotterdam, Holland, landed in Colonial America at Port Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, September 11, 1732, the year George Washington, the father of our country, was born. John Hottel must have been still a young man at that time. Of his parents we have not been able to find any trace. Probably they were lost in the terrible commotions of Europe, and their records destroyed.

John Hottel and Margaret were married about 1720, and their five children were all born in Europe. The family name of Margaret, her parentage, time and place of birth in the old country are unknown.

This family located in the northern part of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, where they lived eighteen years and by thrift and industry acquired lands and homes, so that the name Hottel appears on the tax records a few years after their advent. These immigrants took the oath of allegiance to the Crown of Great Britain. In religion they were either Lutherans, Reformed, or possibly Mennonites. They spoke the German language and were faithful, patriotic citizens.

According to Prof. I. D. Rupp, (Sept. 21, 1732) Ulrich Hottel who was sick, arrived with 188 passengers. No further record is given. Probably he was a brother of John.

Children of John and Margaret Hottel

2-b Johannes (John) Hottel^2, b. 1724
2-c Heinrich (Henry) Hottel^2, b. 1726
2x-d Jerick (George) Hottel^2, b. 1728
2y-e Anna (Barbara Anna) Hottel^2, b. 1730

Dates are approximate. These children constitute the ancestors of the whole Hottel family in America.

PARENTS AND THREE CHILDREN MOVE TO THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY, VIRGINIA

Public records show that our Progenitor, John Hottel, Margaret, his wife, and three children, Charles, George and Barbara Anna, emigrated in 1750 to the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, where their descendants are legion today. John and Henry remained in Pennsylvania. Why they became separated is unknown. The descendants of John Hottel rank among the prominent citizens of the Keystone State. They held their Third Family Reunion at Waldheim Park near Allentown, July 26, 1917, at which Rev. John T. Huddle, D. D., of Washington, D. C. and the writer as their honored guests delivered addresses. Those represented on the program were, Joseph M. Hottel, Benneville Hottle, Rev. Benjamin Hottel, Edwin B. Hottle, Lewis L. Schuler, Sylvester Egner, George W. Hottel, Eastburn R. Hottle, J. Abraham Huttel, Joseph S. Hottle, Rev. Henry H. Moyer, Helen Kilmer and Mrs. Frank A. Kaufman. This branch of the Hottel family is not included in the body of the genealogy. What became of Henry, brother of John Hottel, is unknown. Probably he died unmarried.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY

Less than 200 years ago not a white man dwelt in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. Scientists claim it was at one time a lake, evidenced by the discovery of fossils and sea-shells high up on the mountains. When discovered by the white man it was a blooming prairie, the only timber being along the rivers and creeks. It was then a dark and terrible wilderness, the home of the Red Man, where the reckless hunter and daring adventurer feared to pass. Wild game, fur-bearing animals of all descriptions, wild fowl and fish abounded there.

In 1716, Gov. Spottswood with a party of 50 gallant "Knights of the Golden Horseshoe," breasted the steep slopes and tangled underbrush of the Blue Ridge Mountains coming at last to the summit at "Swift Run Gap." He was the first white man to behold the Valley in its primitive beauty. Hence this entire section drained by the Shenandoah River was named in honor of Governor Spottswood. It was once the immense county of Spottsylvania.

In 1734 there was a division of Spottsylvania and the Valley became a part of Orange. In 1738 it was again divided and became the two Counties—Frederick and Augusta. Dunmore County was taken from Frederick in 1772 and in 1777 the Legislature altered the name of Dunmore to Shenandoah. Rockingham County was organized in 1778. Other divisions were soon made. This country was long overrun by Indians of different tribes from whom it could not be bought, because there was a dispute as to the claimants.

The influx of immigration to the Valley began about 1732. Joist Hite, with his family, was one of the first settlers but he was soon followed by the Germans of Pennsylvania and other states. Some came direct to the Valley on landing. Indians vanished into the shades of the forest as the whites enlarged the boundaries of civilization. Finally they all left the low country in the year 1754. Tradition places the nucleus of a town where Winchester now stands as early as 1732. Authentic records show that the first court was held in Frederick County in 1743.

The great Valley of Virginia, drained by the waters of the Shenandoah River, is bounded on the east by the Blue Ridge Mountains and on the west by the Alleghenies, and stretches from the Potomac on the north to the Tennessee border on the south. This includes the smaller Valley of Shenandoah, which is from thirty to fifty miles in width and over a hundred miles in length. It has scenic and historical attractions and natural wonders—the most beautiful valley in the world.

EXACT LOCATION OF THE JOHN HOTTEL HOMESTEAD

Over near North Mountain on the head waters of Toms Brook, out a short distance from the village of Toms Brook, lies the original Hottel homestead, containing 341 acres, which was purchased from Lord Thomas Fairfax, Aug. 30, 1750. This body of land lies six miles north of Woodstock, (Muellerstadt), the seat of Shenandoah County founded in 1760. It is believed the Hottel domicile stood near the Hottel spring on the back road leading to Mt. Olive, near the present residence of David H. Keller. We sometimes wish these worthy ancestors who invaded and occupied these premises in the long ago, could return and reveal themselves to our curious eyes. Nearly two centuries ago they joined the spectral hosts that dwell among the stars, while in yonder Keller graveyard their ashes sleep. Lovingly Virginia's skies are arched above their tombs.

CHILDREN AND THEIR DESCENDANTS

Charles, George and the only daughter, Barbara Anna Hottel, married and lived their entire lives near the vicinity of their parents. They reared prosperous and progressive families. Charles was the father of 11 children; George was the father of 9 children; Barbara Anna, who married George Keller, was the mother of 9 children. Their descendants in the Shenandoah Valley are legion. Apparently the Valley could not accommodate them all, hence in the early years of the nineteenth century the Hottel bee hive swarmed, and today thousands are scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Alaska and Canada to Florida and Texas. A great majority of them have adhered to the faith of their fathers and are a fine people; some have attained to great age, few to great wealth. The majority are well-to-do. Some, if poor, are very respectable. None, as far as known, have been pensioners of public charity. While some have attained to eminence in the literary world and have acquired fame, others have blazoned their names in their country's annals and their deeds have engaged the historian's pen.

They are included among the various vocations of the business and professional world. We find ministers of the various denominations, as well as doctors, lawyers, judges, teachers, farmers; intelligent and educated men and women, high school and college graduates in vast numbers.

THE OLD FRIEDEN'S CHURCH AND HOTTEL-KELLER SCHOOLHOUSE

On the original Hottel homestead near where the first Hottel domicile stood, the old Frieden's church was built in 1821. It was owned jointly by the Reformed and Lutheran congregations. Many of our kin of that day worshipped in this church, being identified with one or the other of these bodies. The congregations were separated and the building abandoned and torn down in 1880 and separate churches were erected. The Lutherans since then worship at St. Matthew's not far distant, and the Reformed people at Harrisville.

A community schoolhouse was built at the rear of the Frieden's church, familiarly known as the Hottel-Keller schoolhouse. This was erected by free-will offerings of money, labor and material. George Hottel, John Snarr, the Kellers and many others figured prominently in this educational enterprise. They believed that education was essential to good citizenship and the welfare of our country.

CHARLES HOTTEL

2-a CHARLES HOTTEL^2, oldest son of the Immigrant, John Hottel, was born in Europe about 1722, came to America with his parents when a mere boy and grew to manhood in Bucks Co., Pa. The public records show that he came to Augusta Co., Virginia (1748-49)—where he owned real estate several years in advance of his parents. He settled on a farm of 250 acres one mile west of the village of Toms Brook. Here near the buildings he and his wife were buried without proper markers and inscriptions. The major part of his life was spent in Shenandoah County. He was among the outstanding pioneers of that community and was a prosperous farmer, owning 1318 acres of land in the above county at the time of his death. The surname of his wife, BARBARA, is unknown. She preceded him to the grave.

Prompted by premonitions of death as a result of being kicked by a horse, Charles made his will. The precision and painstaking care in disposing of his properties is particularly noticeable. He parcelled out land values to his sons and money values to his daughters except Magdalene. The document was written in German, and it stipulated that his son Jacob should maintain him in old age until death; therefore, he departed this life on the farm east of Maurertown, Va. The will is dated June 10, 1778, ordered to be translated in the English language and probated, Sept. 12, 1814.

An abstract of the will of Charles Hottel taken from Probate records at Woodstock is as follows:

1. He speaks of having been hurt by a horse, provides for decent Christian burial, and makes bequests.
2. To John, 285 acres of land valued at 400£, deducted 10£ in addition to the alloted sum for each and owed his brothers and sisters, 217£, 5s. and 6 p.
3. To Jacob, 215 acres of land valued at 400£, deducted his allotment, owed 227£, 5s. and 6p.
4. To Joseph, 250 acres of land valued at 260£, deducted his heritage, owed 87£, 5s. and 6p.
5. To Solomon. 204 acres of land valued at 400£, and 6p., deducted his allowance, owed 227£, 5s. and 12p.
6. To Daniel, 201 acres of land valued at 300£, deducted his allowance, owed 127£, 5s. and 6p.
7. To Magdalene, 163 acres of land and 22£, 14s. and 10p. equals the correct amount due her.

The value of the original estate totals 1910£ for the sum of 1318 acres. Deducting the 10£ which John, the eldest, received, 1900£ was the total remaining for equal distribution. The total of the sums owed by the five brothers, as noted in the foregoing analysis, is 886£, 9s. and 4p. Deducting from this amount due to Magdalene, leaves a remainder of 863£, 14s. and 10p. This sum of money to be divided among the sisters, Barbara, Mary, Elizabeth, Anna and Susannah, who received no bequests of land, divided by five, their number, the result is the sum of 172£, 14s. and 10p. for each.

3-a JOHN HOTTEL^3, first child of Charles and Barbara Hottel, was born near Toms Brook, Shenandoah Co., Va., about 1747; he died prior to Mar. 3, 1813, intestate, having never married. His father devised to him 285 acres of land on the southeast side of the North Shenandoah River near Edinburg to which subsequent purchases were added, making his holdings very valuable at the time of his demise. His possessions were divided among his brothers and sisters. He and Solomon jointly owned their father's family Bible, which likely contained the record of the family. Solomon at the sale of John's household effects purchased John's half and thus owned the entire volume.

3-b JACOB HOTTEL^3, second child of Charles and Barbara Hottel, was born near Toms Brook, Shenandoah Co., Va., about 1749. Records show that he survived his brother John by only a few months or part of a year. He made his will June 25, 1813, but was too weak to sign his name to it and likely died shortly after. The tract of land containing 215 acres two and a half miles east of the village of Maurertown upon which he spent his entire life, was given to him by his father, Charles Hottel. The residence, a large log house—remodeled in later years by siding and paint—is still standing and in good preservation. This domicile is known by the residents of the community as the old Hottel home. Jacob was very fond of his father and maintained him in his old age until his death.

According to Miley, genealogist, Jacob Hottel married the widow of Joseph Rhodes, Sr., who died in 1766. His will was probated at Winchester, in Aug. 1766. Before her marriage, Mrs. Rhodes was MARY ELIZABETH STRICKLER. Jacob, Sr. provided for his surviving widow and two children, Jacob, Jr., and Mary, each one-third of the estate, also each one-third of that he was entitled to out of the estate of his brother John which he did not live to receive.

4-b Mary Hottel^4, b. Mar. 3, 1768

4-a JACOB ("SNITZ") HOTTEL-HUDDLE, JR.^{4}, son of Jacob, Sr., was born two and a half miles south east of Maurertown, Va., 1766; d. prior to Mar. 12, 1845, date of estate of settlement; m. Dec. 6, 1795, BARBARA ANN STOVER, dau. of Samuel and Barbara (Lionberger) Stover, a granddaughter of Daniel and Eve (Albright) Stover, of Page County.

P. S. Rhodes, associate historian, is credited with the write-up of Mr. Huddle's life, as follows: "On his father's farm he grew to manhood, receiving little opportunity for education. However, he was endowed by nature with an unusually well balanced mind, which was improved and developed by association with men of affairs, so that in his mature years he was regarded as being far above the average in intelligence and sound judgment, and was well read for the time in which he lived.

In early life he was a member of the Mennonite Church and was exceedingly plain and unassuming in his manners and dress, wearing homespun and homewoven woolen and linen, being seldom seen in any other apparel.

During the Revolutionary War he was subject to draft into the service of the colonies, but being a Mennonite with conscientious objections to military service, he endeavored to escape or elude conscription by hiding away in the mountains east of his home. By this means he escaped military service during the Revolution. Warfare was strictly forbidden in the doctrines and customs of his church.

He was a very industrious and energetic and, possibly, the most successful farmer in the central part of Shenandoah County in his day. He loved his land and live stock and general farming which netted him handsome profits each year; and this income carefully augmented from the accruing revenues from other investments was invested in farming land. He pursued this method throughout his active life until he owned in Shenandoah County over 900 acres of land, most of it very desirable. He owned farms in the Counties, Page, Frederick and Rockingham, also in Licking Co., Ohio. Besides he possessed a large personal estate, and at least two negro slaves whose name were Jack and Tom; but he evidently did not take kindly to the slave trade or ownership of them which was so common in that day as he gave the two he had their liberty.

The writer has heard men who knew him well personally make the assertion that at the time of Mr. Huddle's death his estate was estimated at $200,000. When we consider the difficulties under which this large estate was accumulated, it seems almost impossible to have amassed such a sum in the span of his life time. Crops had to be raised with few implements now seen on farms; wheat was harvested with the reap hook and grain cradle, threshed by tramping with horses, and ground in mills on adjacent streams. The flour was hauled on wagons to Alexandria, Baltimore or Fredericksburg, where it was sold for specie or exchanged for salt, coffee and manufactured articles not yet produced in this country, but imported from Europe.

Many interesting stories are told illustrating the personal characteristics of the man. Upon one occasion he was in Woodstock dressed in his usual plain garb when there appeared on the street several men from southwest Virginia or Tennessee taking a number of fine young horses to the eastern markets and while stopping Mr. Huddle examined the animals very carefully. Selecting one of the finest specimens he asked the price of that particular one. The owner sized up Mr. Huddle by his plain clothes and thinking him unable to buy anything, remarked in a commanding tone, "As it is you I will take ——— dollars for him." But to his surprise Mr. Huddle put his arm through the bridle rein, and taking a roll of bills from his pocket proceeded to count out the money to the stranger who, realizing his predicament, began begging off, trying to annul the bargain. Mr. Huddle, however, insisting that a bargain is a bargain, paid for the horse and took him away.

The subject of our sketch was generally known by the nickname "Snitz" Huddle. This name was given him, according to one of his great-grandsons, in the following way: When hiding in the mountains during the Revolution, on one occasion his stay was so prolonged that he was almost starved when he reached his home. Getting hold of some dried apples he ate so many that when they swelled up in him it became necessary to bandage him.

Another tradition is to the effect that he paid the minister who solemnized his marriage with dried apples, commonly called snits. Still another tradition has it that he was very fond of dried apples and carried a supply in his pockets for occasional eating.

The Crabill farm lying due south of Maurertown was received by inheritance from his father in 1813. This farm was always regarded as a very valuable property. It was valued by his father at 600 pounds, English money.

The Marsh farm adjoining the home place he bought from the Mark Miller heirs for 1810 pounds, seemingly a large price, but he made it a valuable farm. About 1805, Mr. Huddle purchased from the heirs of David Stover the farm containing 450 acres of splendid land lying on the North Fork of the Shenandoah River. On this farm, regarded as one of the best in his section, he spent the latter years of his life.

There being no Church of his choice (Mennonite), in his vicinity and County, Mr. Huddle in the later years of his life identified himself with the Disciple Church at Zion near his home. He and his wife were buried in a private cemetery on the farm where they spent the most of their days. Six children were born near Maurertown, Va.

The subject of our sketch was generally known by the nickname "Hooley" Huddle. This name was given him, according to one of his great grandsons in the following way: When hiding in the mountains during the Revolution, on one occasion, his state was so precarious that he was almost starved when he reached his home. Getting hold of some dried apples he ate so many that when they swelled up in him it became necessary to [illegible] him.

Another tradition is to the effect that he paid the soldier who substituted for him, with dried apples, commonly called snits. Still another tradition has it that he was very fond of dried apples and carried a supply in his pockets for occasional eating.

The Huddle farm lying one mile of Maurertown was received by inheritance from his father in 1811. This farm was always regarded as a very valuable property. It was valued by his father at 640 pounds, English money.

The [illegible] farm adjoining the home place he bought from the Mark [illegible] heirs for 2212 pounds, seemingly a large price, but he made it a valuable farm. About 1827, Mr. Huddle purchased from the heirs of David [illegible] the farm containing 450 acres of splendid land lying on the North Fork of the Shenandoah River. 3-f ELIZABETH HOTTEL^{3}, sixth child of Charles and Barbara Hottel, b. near Toms Brook, Va., about 1758; m. first, CHRISTIAN RIFE (REIFF). To them six daughters were born. Their daughter, Elizabeth, qualified as administratrix of her father's estate, July 9, 1793, which fact indicates he had died prior to that date. Elizabeth (Hottel) Rife later married ANDREW ZIRKLE, without issue. According to records, her will was probated Mar. 9, 1819, which proves she had died some time before this event. As far as could be ascertained, the Rife heirs sold out and left Shenandoah Co., prior to the Civil War, excepting Mary, who remained near Woodstock. Her descendants are numerous in Shenandoah, Rockingham, Bath and Augusta Counties, Va.

Henry Haun, and Mary, his wife, lived, prospered, died and were buried on their farm of 200 acres two miles north of Woodstock. Most of their descendants reside in and about Woodstock. He makes mention in his will of Daniel Grable, his son-in-law, but daughter's name is not given. Many dates of births and deaths are not available for the genealogy.

JONATHAN AND ELIZA ANN (SAUNDERS) THARP

According to the Accomack Co., VA Revolutionary War Registry of 1781, Jonathan Tharp enlisted at age 20 yrs., 5'7" tall, fair complexion and born in Accomack Co., VA.

According to his application for the Rev. War pension he enlisted twice. The first tour was from 1779 to 1781. During that time he served in a fort on Wallops Island, off the coast of VA, for Capt. Southy Copes Co. under the command of Colonel Fubecker. He was captured along with his company by the British Privateer Schooner, "The Irish Hero." Jonathan was held 24 hrs. in irons and suffered a great deal of pain when they were being removed. The British held him four days in the hold of the vessel when he was exchanged and served the remainder of his enlistment in a blockhouse on Potenkin River. He then reinlisted in 1781 and served under Capt. John Kirkpatrick in the regiment commanded by Col. Webb and Major John Paulson. He served part of the rest of his time in Cumberland Co. and Chesterfield Co., VA scouting, foraging, and becoming engaged in several skirmishes. He was stationed in the blockhouse on Potenkin River when Cornwallis was captured at Little York. He was discharged in writing by Col. Fubecker at the old courthouse in Cumberland Co., VA, but had lost the discharge papers.

On 15 Aug 1791 in Pittsylvania Co., VA Jonathan Tharp obtained a marriage bond to marry Lizann Saunders. According to a statement made by Eliza Ann (Saunders) Tharp the marriage didn't take place until 20 Aug 1792 by Mathew Bates. Her father was William Saunders/Sanders.

On 17 Nov 1802 in Pittsylvania Co., VA John Tharp purchased 24 ac. on Maggotty River from John West. The property lines bounded Richard Katts, John West and John Barrells.

On 28 July 1803 John Tharp sold 74 ac. to Vincent Walker. The property lines bounded Col. David Hunts, William Dunning, Jessee Sanders, and Richard Keatts.

John Tharp was in the 1810 Rockingham Co., NC census.

In 1819 Jonathan Tharp applied for a Rev. War pension in Rockingham Co., NC, but was turned down because he owned more property than would entitle him to the provision under the act of congress. He stated that he had a tract of land in Rockingham Co., NC containing 116 ac. adjoining Thomas Settle which he subsequently sold to Mariam Perkins for $250.00. Mr. Perkins became insolvent about the time the first payment was due. Jonathan had already given Mr. Perkins the deed and in 1826 he was unable to travel the 60 mi. to get a copy of the deed because of his poverty and infirmity. The deed had not been recorded. There was much court action in an attempt to resolve the matter.

John Tharp was in the 1820 and 1830 Surry Co., NC census.
